WILL RECOVER
Scripps News Association

Odesa, Feb. 2.—M Golorine, chief police who was shot yesterday by revolutionists will recover. Assailant who refuses to tell anything about him self declares all police officials doomed City quiet today.

(By Scripps News Association)
St. Petersburg Feb. 2.—Impossible to confirm the report that the Czar intends to give people constitution. Well informed persons say that the report is entirely without foundation. Assert that the Czar is simply urging haste in drawing up of reforms outlined in imperial Ukase of Dec 30th. It is the general opinion that some reforms will shortly be inaugurated but it is thought it will take form of extension of self government. More educational facilities, and less rigid censorship of press.

Looks Better

(By Scripps News Association)
St. Petersburg Feb. 2.—One workman who was a member of the party received the Czar yesterday said today "Half of us were moved to tears by the words" We are confident he will keep his promise. The Czar looked young and well but grave. There is not a trace of gray in his hair. We were treated like generals returning from war. I think the workmen will definitely abandon Father Gopon, whom many of us accuse of using the workmen for political purposes by promising higher wages I believe ninety per cent of the workmen will be glad to resume work the remainder probably ready to resume agitation.

More Power

(By Scripps News Association)
St. Petersburg, Feb. 2.—It is stated upon good authority the report of the committee of ministers appointed to give effect of the Emperors ukase of Dec 25, urges enlargement of the powers of the senate over the minister and favors establishment of a lower administrative tribunal connected with the senate.

CAPTAIN CLANDO EXPLAINS IT ALL

(By Scripps News Association)
Paris, Feb. 2.—Before the North Sea commission today Capt. Clando explained the failure of the Russian to render aid to fishing vessels after the attack was due the fact that the Admiral did not consider the injuries inflicted on the Trawlers serious and since the Russian squadron has just escaped an attack of the torpedo boats and was desirable to withdraw from the scene just as soon as possible.

MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

(By Scripps News Association)
Jefferson City, Mo. Feb. 2.—The supreme court today affirmed judgement of murder in the first degree against Wm Rudolph a notorious banlie sentenced to hang March 17th. Rudolph is convicted for the murder of detective Schumaker who hunted him down for robbing a bank at Union Mo.

Advanced A Step

(By Scripps News Association)
St. Petersburg, Feb. 2.—The Czar today signed the appointment of M. Muravioff, Minister of Justice to be ambassador to Rome. It is announced by official authority that his assistant M. Manukhan will receive the appointment of Minister of Justice.

PEOPLE FROZEN TO DEATH IN CHICAGO

(Scripps News Association)
Chicago, Feb. 2.—The city of Chicago is suffering terrific hardships today on account of the extreme cold. The temperature for the past twenty four hours has ranged from fifteen to thirty degrees below zero. This morning the bodies of five victims were found on the streets frozen. The suffering is principally confined to the poor, who are unprepared for the extreme cold. Several fires last night

California Bribers

(By Scripps News Association)
Sacramento Feb. 2.—The district attorney announced this morning that he has receded from his determination to issue warrants of arrest against the accused of taking bribes and will await the action of the grand jury which meets on the 5th. He states that Bunkers, Emmoms, Wright and French are being watched, and will not be allowed beyond the surveillance of the detectives of his office.

DUEL BETWEEN JAPS AND RUSSIANS

(By Scripps News Association)
Makden, Feb. 2.—The indications point to the fact that the Japanese have abandoned Sandjapan. Ten battalions which attacked the Russian left is reported to have met with heavy loss. An artillery duel is reported to be in progress between the Russian and Japanese center at this time and the loss of life on both sides is said to be fearful. The Russians have a strong force between Sandjapan and Shakolpn. It is evident the Russians have taken this position with a view of checking the Japanese turning movement. The latest returns from the scene of the fighting show that the Russians have already lost thirteen thousand men killed and wounded.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY

(By Scripps News Association)
Portland, Feb. 2.—The federal grand jury today has been busy investigating an alleged conspiracy on the part of prominent Portland men to obstruct the effort being made to continue the land fraud cases, by causing the removal of the prosecuting officer Heney. It is claimed by the prosecution that there is a conspiracy to block and defame the character of those who are causing the investigation. A witness this morning testified before the federal grand jury that they had been asked by the conspirators if they would give evidence along certain lines desired. The witnesses testified that the conspiracy was to accuse Attorney Heney of having had lewd connections with a woman interested in the case. One witness stated that later's proposition was made whereby the witness was to lay a trap for Heney by inviting Heney to her rooms. Other witnesses stated that they were asked to swear that they had seen Heney coming from her rooms. The plot to oust Heney was discovered by secret service agents several days ago and as a result all were summoned to appear before the federal grand jury this morning. Among those who received the invitation to call and explain matters were John Hall, former district attorney, County Attorney John Manning, Attorney C H Cary, Detective H W Ford, Marie Ware and Alice White.

Governor Grants Reprieve

(By Scripps News Association)
Montpelier Vt Feb. 2.—Notwithstanding the fact that Governor Bell announced this morning that he did not believe that the people of Vermont desired that Mary Rogers who is under sentence for the murder of her husband and should be reprieved this afternoon he granted a reprieve until June 2. When the news was announced to Mrs Rogers she was almost prostrated with joy. She maintains that she was sure that the Governor would not allow her to be hanged. Had the Governor not interfered in her behalf she would most certainly have been hanged next Friday.

The Governor granted a reprieve on ground that the woman claims not to have had fair trial, and says that evidence presented against her was false and given no consideration. She says laws of Vermont are cruel and barbarous.
