Coughing Spell Caused Death

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, died at his home in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a little cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from asphyxiation. St. Louis Globe-Democrat Dec 4, 1904. Well known storehouse and yard would have saved him. $50.00 and $100.00.—Newlin Drug Co.

Bent Her Double

"I knew no one," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders at the Newlin drug store price 50c.

When I heard that she was ill I went to her apartment. No one was admitted to her. But as I passed through the hall the nurse chanced to draw aside the portier to her chamber and I caught a glimpse of her propped up in her bed by pillows—dying killed by drugs. It is live to be one hundred I can never forget that sight.

Drugs! Let them alone. Suffer pain rather, for pain disciplines and exalts. Drugs debase and destroy.

Bright Meteor

[By Scripps News Association]

Evanston Wyo. Feb 2.—The brightest meteor ever seen in this section crossed the heavens last night the brilliancy so great, print could easily be read.

Lincoln J. Carter's "Two Little Wails," after a season of forty weeks playing all the principle cities of the United States and Canada, will return to the coast and on Tuesday, Feb. 15 will be at Steward's Opera House. The patrons of the above theatre will remember with delight this announcement, for the impression made by the company last season still lingers in their memory.

One of the best attractions that has appeared at Steward's Opera House this season will be the "Two Little Wails" next Tuesday evening Feb 7.

I urged her to break off the habit. She turned and gave me a despairing look that haunts me yet. "Break off?" she mocked. "You do not know what you are saying."

She is dead. She died a hopeless wreck.

The other woman—ah! how plainly I see her—little, intense, a bundle of nerves, and emotions—an American Duse—for she strongly resembled the great actress. A creature, too, of moods and passions, of fiery temper and jealous sulks. Then, again, urbane, generous, fascinating. She was addicted to various drugs and they ruined her intellect and finally killed her.

Two weeks before she died I was at dinner with her. At the tables sat some of the cleverest men and women in this country. She was the hostess at this bidden dinner. It was with difficulty that she held herself erect, so stupefied by drug was she. I can see her now in her beautiful gown swaying in her chair, her glorious eyes heavy with some narcotic, rolling aim-

LET US SHOW YOU

How Would You Like to have One Hundred New Customers?

Is your store in such shape that One Hundred New Customers would "turn the tide" for you?

Are things with you only just "so-so"? Bills maturing too fast—sales a little slow—too many people going past your doors—lack of "snap" and "go" and "hustle" around your counters?

Are fixed expenses coming to be a burden—while they should be merely an incident—in your business?

If you feel these symptoms, no matter whether you are a big merchant or a little one.—You need a Tonic.

PUBLICITY

in just as large doses as you can stand REPEATED EVERY DAY will change the whole situation for you.

It is idle to suppose that you cannot secure the one hundred new customers—regular customers who would "turn the tide" for you.

YOU CAN GET THEM—but not by wishing for them. It's not so easy as that. Nor by distributing hand bills, or putting up posters, or buying space in programs—it's not so easy as that. You must spend some money—more than you have ever spent—for Ade-
