Young Girl is Rescued

[By Scripps News Association]
 Seattle Feb 3—One of the boldst efforts to abduct a girl ever attempted in this state was frustrated last evening by Carl Olson after a desperate struggle which lasted nearly an hour. The abductors had engaged a tug to assist them in their attempt to abduct fifteen year old Ellen Basket. The girl was lured to the dock and was about to be loaded into the tug when Olson interfered. C M Landerkin the former husband of the girl attempted to drive Olson away and during the struggle he threw some sort of liquid into the faces of both Olson and the girl, but Olson would not release his hold upon the girl or release Landerkin until he was able to escape with her. It is feared that the girl will lose her sight on account of the stuff thrown in her face. Landerkin escaped and it is thought that he is now cruising around the sound with the tug. This is the second attempt to kidnap the girl. A warrant is out for his arrest and officers claim it will be only a matter of a few days before he is arrested.
