WHAT SOME PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF TOWN ARE DOING.

Mrs. Hannah Rogers is quite ill at the home of her son Adusey Rogers.

Wm. Stalker and wife, of Baker City passed through the city last night enroute from Wallawa County to Boise. Dick Buckley, chief dispatcher at the depot, has returned from a few days visit in Portland and other points west.

The regular examination for county and state papers will take place in La Grande beginning next Wednesday Feb 8 and will continue during the week.

The report comes from San Bernardino, Cal, that Mrs. Alex Nibley, of Perry, who has been quite ill is improving and the report that she was seriously ill is a mistake.

Senator Mitchell has kindly sent the Observer office a small sack of garden seeds which we will distribute as long as they last. There are about 100 packages in all. First come, first served.

In addition to the parties named who are out for the marshalship, we are informed that E. W. Cross is also a candidate. We have not personally interviewed any of the parties mentioned.

Lincoln J. Carter's "Two Little Waifs," after a season of forty weeks playing all the principle cities of the United States and Canada will return to the coast and on Tuesday, Feb 7 will be at Steward's Opera House. The patrons of the above theatre will remember with delight this announcement, for the impression made by the company last season still lingers in their memory.

Heavy snow is reported to have fallen in the mountains.

Geo. Mapes of Elgin was in the city today on business.

The regular social dance will take place at the Commercial club this evening, to be given by the club.

Mr. A. B. Conley and Mr. George Miller returned today from a visit to Portland and are now guests at the Sommer Hotel.

Since his arrival home from Scuthern California C. B. Wade's health has become worse. The change of climate in the middle of the winter has been detrimental to his physical condition. —Pendleton E. O.

On the last day of the month a license to wed was secured at the county clerks office by Fred D. McCracken of La Grande, who a few minutes afterwards appeared before Judge Curry with Miss Ethel Bartman a Baker City girl and in less than three minutes they were made one. —Baker City Herald.

It is more than probable that all the appointive officers of the city will be candidates for re-election with the exception of city attorney J. W. Knowles who emphatically states that he has been honored with this position for eight years and that he will not be a candidate at the expiration of his present term.

LOST—The owner of the sack of rice shipped from Franklin & Co Portland Oregon and addressed to H. C. La Grande should call at this office.

IS uncommon so they say. It is becoming more common every day. People are exercising their good judgment by supplying their needs in meats at our market; if you want the best, at prices as low as the lowest, come in and see what we have to sell. Your eyes will tell a bigger and better story than our space permits now.
