Special Services at Presbyterian Church

That the meetings are growing in interest and power is manifest by the large numbers that attended the various services and by the fact that at every meeting souls were won to Christ.

The special music arranged by Prof. Powers was rendered and was worthy of special praise and added much to the interest of the meeting the mixed quartette sang "The story must be told" the male quartette "Come away to Jesus Now" "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" and a duet by Prof. Powers and Mrs F Geibel "Nailed to the Cross"

In the Sunday school the pastor gave a short talk and was followed by the teachers to their own classes and many scholars decided to follow Jesus.

A large audience was present at the morning service the sermon by Rev Needham on "The Resurrection of Believers" was the best of the many excellent sermons. He has preached here. By his logical, convincing and tender appeal he won all hearts, the solo by Prof Powers "Tell Mother I'll Be There" was a fitting close for the sermon. His voice seemed sweeter and more powerful than ever and had a tender influence over the audience and brought the tears to many eyes. At the close of the service many stood up and took a stand on the Lord's side.

The two meetings in the afternoon for men and women were well attended and much interest was manifested and all went away feeling it was good to be there.

As a result of the Mens meeting a business men's Noon Day prayer meeting will be held every day at noon at the Presbyterian church from 12:30 to 1 p. m. All men are invited to attend.

A packed house greeted the evening service every seat with extra seats was taken and many had to stand, and others could not find entrance. At this service Rev Day of the Baptist church and his congregation united with the Presbyterian Church and was made welcome by the pastor and and congregation.

The sermon by Rev Needham from the subject "Heaven the Home for Believers" was another strong appeal to the unsaved.

In the two solos, "The Better Land and "My Saviour First of All" by Prof Powers he won our hearts over again

In the after meeting a number confessed for the first time Jesus Christ as their Saviour. The preaching by Rev Needham and singing by Prof Powers was extra ordinary and no one should fail to hear them during the rest of the meeting, the opportunity to hear such men rarely come to a place of this size.

LA GRANDE BOY GETS HONORS

F S Ivanhoe Jr who is now attending the Agricultural College at Corvallis, has won some distinction in this work that was entirely unexpected by him. With other courses of study, he decided to take up that of mechanics, and his rapid progress and quick conception of the work has caused meritorious comment. It appears that the teachers of this department decided they would have each one of the students in this class prepare an essay or paper on the work, with a view to selecting six of the same to send to the Lewis and Clark exhibition. Nevertheless, the students were kept in ignorance of the reason the papers were required considering it nothing more than the regular work. Consequently no special effort was made, those only doing their best for the love of the work. Forrest Ivanhoe was one of the fortunate six whose papers were selected as being the best articles on the subject to be sent to the exhibition.

LET US SHOW YOU

How Would You Like to have One Hundred New Customers?

Let Your Newspaper Do Things For You

How would you like to have one hundred new customers? Let your newspaper do things for you.

When this newspaper has given to you the last word about the events of the day—when it has noted at a spot of central office in "connecting" you with "all of creation"—it has done much for you of course.

Are things with you only just "so so"? Bills maturing too fast—sales a little to slow—too many people going past your doors—lack of "snap" and "go" and "hustle" around your counters?
Are fixed expenses coming to be a burden—while they should be merely an incident—in your business.
If you feel these symptoms—no matter whether you are a big merchant or a little one.—You need a Tonic

But it can do more than that—it can help you run your store, your office, your factory or your house. It can carry your little worries for you and never turn a hair.
You do not fully use your newspaper if you simply read it.
You do not know your newspaper until you have used its want columns. It can dispose of things for you. It can find lost things for you, find any kind of help you need, find buyers for you house, you lot, your horse, your furniture, your shop or store, leasehold or equity.

PUBLICITY
in just as large doses as you can stand REPEATED EVERY DAY will change the whole situation for you.
It is idle to suppose that you cannot secure the one hundred new customers—regular customers who would "turn the tide" for you.
YOU CAN GET THEM but not by wishing for them. It's not so easy as that. Nor by distributing hand bills, or putting up posters, or buying space in programs—it's not so easy as that. You must spend some money—more than you have ever spent—for Ad-equat

In short, any day every day, this paper stands ready and able to do things for you!
