

WILL TRY IT AGAIN

The Union committee at Salem did excellent work during the past thirty days, and drew the strongest fire of the opposition in county division matters. Union was in it from start to finish, and the end is not yet. There is no malice or desire for vengeance in the proposition at all. Union and tributary country simply wish a new county, and have laid plans that will land the prize in 1917.—Republican.

Wrong, Brother

Thank God, the federal grand jury has not cast a breath of suspicion toward any of the newspaper men of the state, and it is to be hoped that when the returns are all in Journalism with its mighty power for good its unflinching devotion to right, its high regard for truth, may remain unshaken.—Union Republican.

Chas. Nickel one of the veteran newspaper men of Southern Oregon is among the list indicted. Mr. Nickel is not only a prominent newspaper man but quiet a politician.

NEW HOPE FOR DYSPEPTICS

We know at which point obstructions of various sorts might interfere with the work of the stomach and its associated organs in digestion; we examine carefully these areas; we find some of its parts are out of order; we correct those disturbances by skillful manipulations through the application of good mechanical sense to the human organism; the machine improves its work as Nature reasserts a proper order of things—and the patient gets well!

This is the important point—the patient gets well!
This satisfies us that the Osteopathic idea is correct and any amount of earping by medical critics, who reason that "it is simply impossible for the human machine to get out of order in the way the Osteopathist says," will not sweep us from our position. Our opinions are founded on facts—cures in multitudes.

W. J. CHURCH, Executor

At Central Church.

Last evening a large and attentive audience listened to J. V. Coombs discourse on the theme, "Gospel or Christ" or "Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth." The subject as handled by Mr. Coombs was very interesting, the illustrations were telling. The difference between the Patriarchal, Legal and Gospel ages was clearly shown. The missions of John the Baptist of Jesus in his three and a half years service and of the seventy were all to "the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

Under the great commission given by the Saviour the Gospel is not for the Jews only but for all nations, for every creature. We have the accounts of thousands of conversions in the book of Acts. If you are willing to become a Christian in the way people did under the simple preaching of inspired apostles, read the little book of Acts. There will be a short service this evening and several services tomorrow.

Memoriam

In memory of Garold Goodwin who died in this city Feb. 15.
We loved him, yes, we loved him,
But Jesus loved him more,
And He has sweetly called him,
To yonder shining shore.

The Golden Gates were opened,
A gent's voice said "Come!"
And with farewell unspoken
He calmly entered home.
