

Senators M'Donald's Visit

The following interesting letter has been received from the O A C at the Corvallis College:—
Editor Observer—
Last Saturday the Senators and Representatives from Salem visited the O A C and among them was Senator McDonald and wife from Summerville Union Co. The Senator created a fine impression upon the people here. All the Senators and Representatives expressed their surprise at the magnificence of the institution.

The "Lament of the Umavilla", written by Bert Huffman of the Essex Oregonian is being quite widely read by the students here.
The first of a series of three games was played here last night between the Albany and O A C girls Basketball teams to decide the championship of the State. Score 4 to 3 in O A C's favor.—O A C

Injunction Denied

By Scripps News Association
Los Angeles Feb 20—Judge Walborn of the federal court has denied the injunction asked by the Santa Fe railroad to restrain striking holler makers from attempting to keep men from working at the company shops at San Bernardino. The judge held the federal court had no jurisdiction.

GREAT DAY AT CENTRAL CHURCH

TWENTY TWO ADDITIONS
Yesterday was a great day in the revival in Central Church of Christ. The lecture room was needed both morning and evening, the evening audience filling the house. The main audience room was filled with men at 3 p. m. At 10:30 a. m. Mr. Coombs addressed the Bible School and invited the boys and girls to accept Christ. One man, one girl and five boys responded and confessed their faith in the Savior. At 11 o'clock service five more confessed their Lord and two who had held membership elsewhere united with the congregation. Before the evening sermon the evangelist extended the invitation and three responded. At the close of the sermon two more came and after the audience was dismissed the people were called to order and three more made the good confession. Altogether twenty two people came forward, nineteen of them to begin the Lord's work and three who were members to unite with this congregation. The evangelist will preach each evening this week. Subject this evening "Delusions," dealing with witchcraft, spiritualism, etc.

Held An Interesting Meeting

Society met at the usual hour last Friday.
A good program was rendered. The question debated was Resolved "That the national government should establish a system of postal savings banks such as was recommended by postmaster general Wainwright in his report for 1890." Affirmative W. R. Jasper, Fred Huffman, James Anson Negative U. D. Huffman, E. D. Jasper Scott Goodall. The decision was rendered in favor of the negative.
Next Friday evening will be the last meeting of the society and the program should be a good one. Everyone invited. 7:30 p. m.

Special Meetings

That was a meeting full of power at the Methodist Church yesterday morning as Rev. Mr. Hartshorn discussed the question "Are we all going to heaven?" With bated breath the large congregation followed his every phase of argument and excuse we offer. The most effective part of the service of the forenoon meeting was the class-meeting and the after service connected with it. Saturday evening he fully analyzed the "Old Man" and at the Bible readings at two o'clock each day will tell us how to kill him. Mr. Hartshorn will speak this and every evening this week at 7:30

FACT RECONSTRUCT THEORIES
Medicine as a whole will simply have to come to accept the Osteopathic dietum wherever trained fingers locate such adequate anatomical lesions. The people already have done so—not because they cared much about finely spun medical theories, but because this theory appealed to them as common-sense. The proof of this is the million people who believe in Osteopathic practice, after its growth of only a decade as an independent system, and more than twenty-five statutes that have enacted from Vermont to California legalizing Osteopathy as a curative science and protecting it from persecution and misrepresentation by imposters.

Appreciated

The news service furnished the Observer by the "Scripps News Association" upon a critical comparison will be found to be identical with that furnished the Portland Journal, Pendleton East Oregonian and the Boise Capital News and is the first complete telegraph report ever furnished any paper in this city, and we are pleased to note the appreciation of the same by the public, which is demonstrated by the increased number of subscribers.
