GREAT DAY AT CENTRAL CHURCH

Last evening a great audience heard evangelist Coombs on Delusions. The service was longer than usual but the interest was intense and no one seemed tired. This evening he continues along the same line. Tomorrow there will be five prayer meetings held at 2 o'clock. The cottage prayer services will be held at the following homes: Mrs. Jett north of the track, Mrs.

Corner on 3rd street, Mrs. Reynolds on Adams Ave and 1 W Faulk Old Town. A special prayer service for all who have confessed Christ or united with the congregation during these meetings will be conducted by the pastor in one of the rooms of the church at the same hour. At 3 o'clock a service will be held in the church and a number of persons will be baptized.

More Oil Trouble

[By Scripps News Association]
Springfield, Ill. Feb. 21— Resolutions were introduced in the legislature this afternoon expressing sympathy with the state of Kansas in the fight that state is making against the Standard Oil Company. The resolutions provided for a committee to investigate the Standard Oil Company's pipe lines in the state of Illinois with a view of declaring them a common carrier. It is apparent that the legislature is eager to assist Kansas in its struggle with the oil monopoly. An immediate hearing for the resolution is demanded by those back of the resolution.
