Your Neighbors Wife

Which opens for Thursday March 2nd. The play is a comedy drama in three acts by Chas. Ellis, which provides Master Dunbar the greatest child actor on the American stage, as Buster Brown with just the sort of speeches that sounds funny when he delivers them, but would not if spoken by any one else. The repetition of certain aside remarks which he interjects parenthetically and in the most irrelevant way as in "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and in other vehicles contributes much to the merriment of his scenes. Instead of this little squibs and quips becoming flat and stale they sound funnier the oftener they are repeated in the inimitable scenes of Master Dunbar who is ably assisted by James T. McGovern as Happy Hooligan. The musical numbers compel the owner, Mr. Hugh Ettinger, to carry a band and orchestra of solo players. The Free Concert given by these clever musicians on the above date in the afternoon and evening in front of the Opera House is well worth coming miles to hear.
