BIG RUSH OF PEOPLE WILL SOON BEGIN

It is expected that by next week the vanguard of the great army of colonists and homeseekers will begin to arrive in Oregon and Washington. The colonists rates from the middle west and north west are now in effect on all the trans-continental railroads. It is a one-way colonist rate and will be effective from March 1 until May 15. It applies to second class travel only.

The railroad officials are unanimous in predicting for Oregon and Washington the largest influx of settlers and homeseekers this Spring in its history. They say that each time the colonist rates go into effect, which is generally twice a year, the travel to the north-west always establishes a new record. But this Spring the travel is expected to be exceedingly heavy, owing to the extensive advertising that has been done for the Lewis and Clark ex-posit-tion. In nearly all the advertising that has been sent out, Portland is one of the predominate features and Oregon and Washington always receive a certain amount of attention.

In this way Portland and the north-west has been brought to the attention of thousands and thousands of eastern people who heretofore have not realized their importance. They have heard more of California than they have of Oregon or Washington until recently. The railroads also have in the last three or four years made greater efforts to induce immigration to the north-west.

The railroad men base their prediction of a record breaking immigration to the northwest this Spring upon the fact that the railroad offices in the east have been swamped with inquiries regarding the city and the immediate vicinity.

First Term of Court In the New District

The first term of the Baker County Circuit Court under the separate district created by the recent legislature, with the Hon Samuel White as judge appointed to serve under the terms of the bill by Governor Chamberlain, will begin its session at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Judge White will read the docket in the morning and set cases for trial Judge Robert Eskin who is now judge of Union and Wallowa counties, will arrive in the afternoon and will sit in the trial of the Barnard murder case from Huntington in which Judge White was previously engaged as counsel and will probably also hear the Leonard Foster murder case from Pine Valley which was tried before him at the last term of court and in which the jury disagreed.

There are 100 cases on the law docket and about 100 cases on the equity docket, with a large number of criminal cases to be tried. Besides the two murder cases mentioned is the case of Maddern, who shot and killed a miner in a saloon in Bourne, a few weeks ago.

It is expected that there will be three weeks of jury work and a grand jury will be drawn for an extended session. Sensational developments are looked for by those in touch with public matters.—Baker Democrat.

Attacks On Newspapers

Budding legislators who seek fame can get as much as lies within their power of attainment by some better method than attacks upon newspapers. It is becoming the regular thing at each session of the legislature for some gentleman to introduce a bill designed to enmesh newspapers more closely in libel laws. It is a cheap way to get notoriety.

A visitor from another land, reading of these bills, would imagine that Pennsylvania newspapers are criminal by profession and character destroying by preference, whereas the exact contrary is the case. If the newspapers should tell all they know about gentlemen who are prominent among those who would bind and gag them the prisons would be overpopulated.

It is said in explanation of this biennial hunting of the newspapers that it is inspired by officials who object to public chronicling of their size of omission and commission. We are not inclined to believe this, for every official knows that his acts are lawfully open to review.

Generally speaking, the newspaper press is a bulwark against official rascality and public lawlessness and every man is more or less aware of the fact that no bill designed to cripple the press deserves an instant's attention.—Harrisburg (Pa) Telegram

Mahara's Minstrels

The most diverting novelty promised by Manager Steward of the coming theatrical week is the famous Mahara's Minstrels known from Maine to California as the banner colored Minstrel organization of America. The entire performance scintillates with a sparkle of originality that has made this company the most popular of all travelling colored attractions. The company comprises a membership of the very best artists, both ladies and gentlemen known to the colored profession. There is not a white face in its ranks, although in its choruses are a dozen pretty young women who, it will be difficult to discover from their lighter sisters. This is considered a new departure in Minstrelry by Mahara Bros who promise many more novel features which will be seen for the first time in this city. The costumes and scenery are entirely new and Manager Steward is positive he has secured one of the brightest treats for his many patrons on March 13th.

The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

Music

R P Tait, the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley, is still in the ring. During my vacation I made it my business as well as pleasure to attend concerts, operas, and in fact everything in my line of business and I found that I as a teacher, and interpreter of music am still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piano course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Church and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Pupils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in music.
R P TAIT, teacher
