Public is Aroused

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die, I had fever and ague my nerves were wrecked I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctor's drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at Newlin's drug store, price 50c.

REGULATIONS FOR LENT ARE ISSUED

Archbishop Alexander Christie, of the Roman Catholic Church issued yesterday the Lenten regulations of this archdiocese, which was read Sunday in all the Catholic churches. These regulations are as follows:

Lent begins March 8. All the faithful not legitimately dispensed are obliged in conscience to observe the laws of the church concerning the Lenten fast.

1 The use of fish meat is allowed at every meal on Sundays, as well as the principal meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, Saturdays of the Ember days and the Holy week excepted.

2 The use of fish, milk, butter and eggs is permitted on all days of Lent at the evening meal and the principal meals of the day on which the use of flesh meat is prohibited.

3 In the morning a small piece of bread is allowed with a small cup of chocolate, coffee or tea or other warm drink.

4 When the principal meal cannot be taken before noon, the order may be inverted and the collation may be taken in the morning and the dinner in the evening.

5 Lard and grease may be used in preparing the meat.

6 Those of the faith who are exempt from the obligations of fasting can on the days when the use of flesh meat is prohibited to all of the faithful, be allowed to use it several times a day, as on the Sundays of Lent, when the obligations are not binding. The use of both flesh meat and fish together at the same meal is strictly forbidden during the whole of Lent.

The following persons are exempt from fasting: All those who have not attained their 21st year or who have passed their 60th year; those whose weak health and conditions may otherwise demand the full amount of nourishment and all those whose occupations are of a laborious and exhaustive nature may be allowed flesh meat at all times.

Those who are excused from fasting on account of age or hard labor, may use flesh meat on the days which it is allowed.

It is eminently in the spirit of the church that all those who use the dispensations from the fast and abstinence, should supply in part the spirit of penitence, by prayers and alms deeds; by avoiding all public shows, parties and amusements, and by abstaining from all intoxicating beverages.

The time for making the Easter communion extends from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday, inclusive. All the faithful are hereby warned that all those who neglect to make the Easter communion violate a law of the church which binds under pain of mortal sin. The transgressors of the law are, moreover, subject to excommunication, and should they die, to deprivation of Christian burial.

Parents have to answer to God for their children. Let them, therefore, remember that they are obliged in conscience to see that their children and others under their charge receive Easter communion.

The reverend rectors are requested to have special Lenten devotions on Wednesdays and Fridays. The exercises shall consist of the beads, instruction on benediction on Wednesdays and the way of the cross and benediction on Fridays.

During the month of March the authorized prayer to St. Joseph will be recited after the usual prayers of the mass.

We also request the reverend clergy to read to the people, in the vernacular, the gospel for each day during Lent, and this be done at the holy mass every morning.

A CHRISTIE,
Archbishop of Oregon City.
C. J. O'REILLY,
Bishop of Baker City.

Torturing Assassin

By Scripps News Association
Berlin, March 6.—The daily Die Welt asserts that the police have been torturing the man who assassinated Grande Duke Sergius, by giving him only salt fish to eat, and refusing him anything to drink in their efforts to compel him to make confession as to who all were in the plot. So far their efforts have been a failure.

Northwest News

Henry Aro, a Japanese, has been convicted at Spokane of the murder in the first degree for killing Sam Chow, a Chinaman, in the latter's tailor shop last December.

Nathan Hart, of Portland, will go to the penitentiary for five years for arson—his second offense. There was no motive ascertainable in either instance, and it was concluded that he has simple mania. For the first offense he served a term at Walla Walla.

The Seattle Star makes the sweeping declaration that the republican party of Washington did not consistently try, and utterly failed to carry out in the legislature a single one of its pre-election pledges as formulated by the last state convention of that party and expressed in its platform.
