WHAT SOME PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF TOWN ARE DOING.

Services in Central Church of Christ this evening. Preaching by O H King Editor Maxwell of the Union Scout is over today in the interests of his publication.

At the last meeting of the council Clyde R Seitz was appointed city engineer and tomorrow morning he will begin the work of running the grades for the principle streets. Mr Seitz has had much experience in this class of work and there is no question but that the work will be well done.

The special meetings at the Methodist church under the direction of the pastor J D Gillilan will continue throughout this week and possibly longer. In addition to the evening service there will be an afternoon meeting at two o'clock each day. All the meetings the last week were well attended and much interest is being manifested.

Married

DAVIS-BEAUCAMP—In this city Sunday March 5, 1905. Mr J W Beaucamp and Miss Doris I Davis. The Rev O B Crockett, pastor of the M E Church South officiating. Mr and Mrs Beaucamp left on the evening train for Milton where they expect to make their future home.

At The Central Church

Such interest was manifest in the services in Central Church yesterday, that Mr Coombs has been asked to return at once and labor a few days more. He has agreed to come tonight and will preach Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings. Preaching this evening by O H King.

Now Completed

The foundry is now in complete operation. Twice each week the great furnace is fired up and the molten metal streams forth and wheels and other castings are made with a rapidity which makes the onlookers head swim. Mr Fitzgerald is now ready for any order which may come. His foundry is complete and his machine shop lacks nothing, and his blacksmith shop is strictly up-to-date. He is in position to mend anything from a threshing machine to a top buggy. From this time on there will be no necessity to send out of town for castings.

Meetings Continued

The meetings at the M E Church will be continued all this week. Yesterday the attendance both morning and evening was so great that the capacity of the Church was taxed to the uttermost, and those present were well repaid for their time by being permitted to hear two masterly sermons. The Rev Gillilan is certainly worth listening to and not only is he able to please his congregation but also has the faculty of furnishing food for thought which does not die at the close of the service. There will be a meeting both afternoon and evening the remainder of the week. And the public is cordially invited to attend.

The exhibit hall at the depot was opened to the public last Saturday evening and it is most certainly a marvelous display of the products of the Grande Ronde Valley. The fruits, vegetables, grains and other products are artistically displayed and do credit to Mr Causey's energy and also to the interest taken by the people of the county.

Mrs J R Kellog returned last evening from a several months visit to her old home in Iowa. She states that the winter there while not so long as usual was so severe that she is well pleased to again be home in the Grande Ronde valley where thirty degrees below zero is unknown. Her many friends will be pleased to know that she has greatly improved in health and that she is again quite well and for one of her years is quite strong.

There are three tickets in the field at the approaching city election in Elgin
