LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.
MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

The Best Cough Syrup

S. L. Apple ex-Probate Judge Ottawa Co. Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c for 4oz and $1.00 Sold by Newlin Drug Co.

Music

R. P. Tait, the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley, is still in the ring. During my vacation I made it my business as well as pleasure to attend concerts, operas, and in fact everything in my line of business and I found that I as a teacher, and interpreter of music am still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piano course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Church and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Pupils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in music.

HURRAH FOR SENATOR FULTON

A Washington dispatch to the New York Times says:

There was an amusing piece of comedy just as the senate closed its night session at midnight yesterday. The senators were in a drowsy condition when Senator Hayburn offered an amendment to the Indian appropriation bill for an appropriation of $27,000 for new school buildings at the Lemhi reservation in his state.

Senator Stewart, chairman of the Indian committee, and in charge of the bill, grew very red in the face and waved his hands impatiently as he shouted, "Accepted." That would have settled the matter, and the item would have gone through safely, but Senator Hayburn insisted on his right to make a speech. "I appreciate the courtesy of the chairman," said Mr. Hayburn, "in accepting the amendment, but it is my privilege if not my duty to make a few remarks on the matter."

A suppressed groan ran through the chamber. President Frye was quick to seize the chance for a joke, and submitted the amendment to a vote. The senate rejected it. The laugh that went with the vote was loud and long. Mr. Hayburn resented the treatment, and with a sarcastic comment disappeared into the cloak room.

Five minutes later Senator Fulton of Oregon offered an amendment calling for $350,000 for irrigation works in his state. "I understand," said he, "that if I make a speech I don't get this, and if I do not make a speech I get it, and therefore I will refrain from saying a word further." The senate exhibited its delight and the amendment went into the bill.

Meetings Continue in The Central Church

The meetings in Central Church of Christ continue a few evenings. It has seemed unwise to close when so many souls obey Christ. Thus far about sixty have been added to the congregation, most of them being beginners in the new life. This evening the evangelist will speak on "Religion and Morality."

As an opening service there will be given a bible reading on "The Holy Spirit," dealing especially with the Baptism of the Spirit. Bring your bibles.

Charged With Forgery

Late yesterday afternoon District Attorney G. W. Phelps filed two informations against C. B. Wade, one for forgery and for larceny by bailor. The first charge is for forging the name of Joseph Vay to a $10,000 note and the second is for misappropriating the funds of the Craig, estate. The bonds for the charge of forgery were fixed at $1,000 and the bonds for the charge of larceny by bailor were placed at $3,000. Robert Forster, lumber dealer; William Slusher, sheepman, and J. F. Robinson, laundryman, qualified as bondsmen for Wade.

Is C. B. Wade, the ex-cashier of the First National bank, a mental and physical wreck?

Is C. B. Wade's condition of such a character as not to permit the ordeal of a trial in the criminal court?

Are his mental derangement and physical collapse temporary or will they remain permanent?

Are sentiment and sympathy of influential friends to be considered as factors in one of the most important cases ever brought into the criminal courts of Umatilla county?

These are a few of the many questions that have been brought to the notice of the officers of law in the case of C. B. Wade, against whom charges of a criminal nature are pending. District Attorney G. W. Phelps and other officers were willing and ready to proceed with the case and to give the ex-cashier a fair trial, but many new phases have now appeared which will probably have the effect of staying a trial procedure for months to come, perhaps years, perhaps for all time. Creditors who lost various and large sums of money through the manipulations of Wade have petitioned the court to dismiss the case on the ground that "any trial in the criminal court of a man in his condition would be a travesty upon justice," while four physicians, all claiming to be disinterested persons, who made individual examinations of Wade, agree that the man is mentally and physically unfit to stand trial and recommend that a trial be stayed at least for the present.—Pendleton Tribune.

Murderer Hanged

Azale D. Galbraith, a prominent mining man, who was convicted of murdering his wife and child at their home in Russell Gulch, near Central City on February 29, 1904, was hanged in the penitentiary at Canyon City Col Monday. Evidence at the trial of Galbraith showed that infatuation for another woman induced him to commit the crime.

Will See President

Heart Smashers

(Salem Statesman)

The hardest blow yet struck at the normal schools has been by the "home girls" of Weston, who have decided to boycott the "home boys" who go with the normal school girls. However, this would certainly indicate that the normal girls have at least the power of attraction.

Last Notice

Months ago I notified the public that all those who had relatives buried in the cemetery, which is a part of my lands were expected to remove the remains without delay. Being aware that this is essentially painful to all concerned, I have been patient but am now compelled to make a final appeal to those interested. The work of clearing the ground has already begun and the lateness of the season necessitates its early completion.
