The Neighborhood Club Reception

At the beautiful and spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Huntington, Tuesday afternoon, March seventh, the ladies of the Neighborhood Club and thirty guests were charmingly entertained by Mesdames J. T. Richardson, G. H. Currey, J. D. Slater, Osborne, Cleaver, Brenholts, and Kiddie of Island City.

The ladies received the guests in the parlor under festoons of ribbon streamers in White and Yellow, their club colors. In their genial and dignified manner they made each guest welcome, and at once a happy and cheery atmosphere filled the parlors. After greetings were most heartily exchanged, order was called by the President, Mrs. Slater. Roll call of the members by Secretary Mrs. Lyle was responded to by Witticisms which caused much mirth, following was a piano solo Pomponette. Durand, by Mrs. Lyle, rendered in her always pleasing and touching manner. Mrs. Carr's rich contralto voice pleased again her many admirers in "Gae to Sleep, by Fisher. Mrs. Chaney rendered in such a pleasing manner a reading entitled Bill Smith, that by repeated applause she responded by giving His Folks and Her's rendered so well that Mrs. Chaney was icst sight of and the typical old dame gossip was breathlessly listened to as she confidentially told her secrets "Between you and me." Mrs. Geibel sang the beautiful song The Pilot's Last

Turn at the Wheel, by Stanley Carior in her sweet and impressive way which always pleases her appreciative audiences.

A Musical Contest directed by Mrs. Cleaver and Mrs. Brenholts was very clever and thoroughly enjoyed by all. A bouquet of the beautiful golden Narcissus and white Carnations was given Mrs. Hill as first prize. In need of consolation a toy horn was presented to Mrs. Turner Oliver. A unique Female Contest directed by Mrs. George Currey was the source of much enjoyment, as a first prize a beautiful white kitten decorated in the Club colors was awarded Mrs. Niel. A second prize, a picture of three little kittens was given Mrs. Carpy and by way of consolation a bottle of catsup was presented to Mrs. R. D. Fields.

The dining room was artistically decorated in Yellow and White cut flowers. Streamers of Yellow and White from the four corners of the room were caught by sprays of flowers and similar which hung gracefully from the chandelier. A dainty luncheon was served buffet style. The guests then took their leave having enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon. The ladies in charge are attributed much praise and will ever be regarded by the Neighborhood Club with highest esteem for entertaining the members and their guests at one of the most delightful receptions ever given.
