LOCAL ITEMS

Mr Al McElroy of Cove is a business visitor in the city today.

Mr Ed L. Hawley has purchased of Mr E C Davis a beautiful tombstone which will be placed over the grave of his wife who died a short time ago in the grave yard at Island City.

The O R & N railway company are at work today moving the track of the south switch a few inches north, in order that it may not conflict with the foundations of the new cold storage plant of the Oregon Produce Co which they are now erecting.

The reputation of the marble works at this place is not only local, but is of good repute outside of the Grande Ronde valley, as is evidenced by the fact that Mr E C Davis, proprietor of the marble works at this place tomorrow ship six monuments to Weston.

Mr Stephen Cady received a letter this morning from his brother in Battle Creek Michigan in which he states that on the evening of February the mercury registered even thirty four degrees below zero. It is hard for Grande Ronde to appreciate such a condition of weather.

During last night Kiddle Bros re loaded four car loads of hogs which they had taken off here to feed, while enroute to Portland from Nebraska. This makes twenty four cars of hogs which they have received in the past few days from Nebraska, all of which they have sent to Portland. Mr Frank Davis of this city will go with the cars from here to Portland.

Benefit Game.

The benefit base ball game to be played tomorrow at 2:50 promises to be a well played game as both teams are composed of good material.

The line up as now scheduled is as follows:

Crable	Pitcher	Cotner
VanHaren	Catcher	Childers
Scriber	1st Base	Williams
Lenhart	2nd Base	Brookler
Pidcock	3rd Base	Prow
Crawford	SS	Maughan
Stoddard	Center Field	Allstott
Bunker	Right Field	Oliver

OSTEOPATHIC HINTS ABOUT CHILDHOOD

Do not accustom your little ones to drug stimulation. It is not only against the interests of their health-being unnecessary, as osteopathic practice has proved in many a family—but it is liable to educate nerve cells to rely upon stimulants and narcotics, which later in life results in the appetite for alcohol and other destroyers. Many a mother has blasted her child's hope in life by recklessly administering soothing syrups. If your child is illing and sleepless there is a cause for it, and you should let the Osteopath find out that fault and rectify it.
