LOCAL ITEMS

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs Henry Henson.

The many friends of Mrs G M Taal will be pained to learn that she is still very ill and that there is seemingly no change for the better.

Master Dean, the son of Mr J O Smith, has now recovered from a case of diphtheria. The attending physician has declared the child out of danger and the quarantine has been raised.

The Lyle Tuesday Musical will meet tomorrow at two thirty in the afternoon, and will be under the direction of Mrs Harley Laughlin. The subject for discussion at this meeting will be the great composer Rheinberger.

Mahara's Minstrel's arrived in the city this morning in their private car and the exhibition given on the streets by the band deserves great praise. If there is anything in reputation, all who attend the production at Stewart's Opera House tonight will be well entertained.

Mr Andrews, a returned missionary from India, will lecture in the Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening, at 7:30 on his work in the mission school. Mr Andrews is being supported by the Christian Endeavors of Oregon and Washington, and comes highly recommended. Admission free, a contribution will be taken at the close. Every one cordially invited to attend.

E E Jones has leased the Silk pasture and will give his personal attention this summer to looking after the pasture and stock that is placed in his care. This is one of the largest pastures in the county and the water and feed is as good as can be found any where. The pasture is divided into six separate lots and horses and cattle will not be allowed to run together. This feature will appeal to the owner of the family milk cow as the cow is assured of careful and quiet treatment. Mr Jones will give his entire attention to the work, and will personally see to it that cows are brought quietly to and from the pasture.

Miss Mollie Hendershot has been appointed official stenographer in the Baker County circuit court.

It is not often that the baseball season opens in La Grande during the first of March, but it did this season.

Al Vogel of Pendleton is in the city for the purpose of buying a car of heavy draft horses. He is a guest of his old time friend Dr P A Charlton the veterinary surgeon.

Charles Tall has the contract for making the lawn surrounding the Dr. F. E. Moore residence on O street. He now has teams at work filling in and grading and will soon have one of the most handsome lawns in the city to his credit. When this contract is finished it will be one of the finest bits of landscape gardening in the city.

Died

PAYNE—At the home of his mother Mrs James Payne, Saturday night at eleven o'clock Arthur L Payne aged twenty five years. Cause of death consumption. The funeral will take place at the family residence Tuesday at one o'clock. Henry & Carr funeral directors

M J Duffey, one of the substantial citizens of the Cove, was a La Grande visitor today.

Mr George Morrison and wife left Saturday morning for a visit to Mountain Home, Idaho

Mr and Mrs Ed Robinson left the city Saturday morning for a visit over Sunday in Union.

Mr J D Robinson, and daughter, of Glenns Ferry, Idaho, arrived in the city Friday evening from a visit to San Francisco, and left here Saturday morning for their home.

In the case which was tried Friday afternoon in Judge Hough's court for an assault upon a chinaman, young George Aekley was fined the sum of ten dollars. Other boys were detained in the incipency of the actions, but no further warrants have been sworn out.

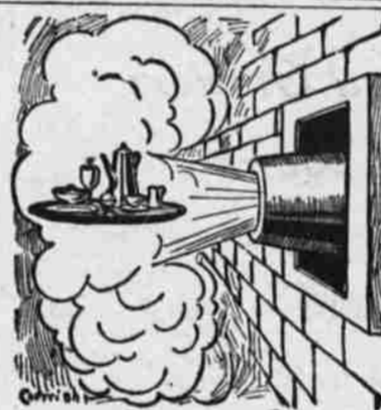

Among those who went to Union from this place Saturday to attend the County Local Institute were County Superintendent, E E Bragg, wife and daughter, Prof H J Hockenberry, Miss Maud Logsdan, Miss Bernice Logsdan, Miss Carrie Huff, Miss Mertie Aldrich, Miss Rohan, Miss Smith and Messrs R A Wilkerson and F E Steger.

Attorney William Ramsey left this morning for Baker City on business of a legal nature

Mr Jake Jacobson returned this morning from Portland where he accompanied Mr Tom Golathon who has entered the hospital there for treatment of an abscess which has formed in his head. Mr Jacobson reports that he was resting very well when he left and that the doctors had not decided whether an operation was necessary or not.

A Thought

Remember that Osteopathy is not a severe treatment, fit only for athletes—as some people erroneously suppose; but that it is soothing and restorative, where it needs to be, and is adapted to the requirements of infants two weeks old just as well as the very aged.

THE QUICKEST LUNCH

—can be had here. We call it our "rapid fire lunch" because it is served so quickly. It is not fired at our patrons, however, but placed before them in a dainty and appetizing manner. This lunch costs little, and satisfies all but the most robust appetites. At a slightly higher price these can be appeased with more substantial viands
