Rock Island meals are the best on wheels

Not very good poetry, perhaps, but what it lacks in rhythm, it more than makes up in fact. And the prices are reasonable—low enough to be within the reach of people of moderate means; high enough to ensure good food, good cooking and good service. Breakfast and dinner are served on the a la carte plan—you pay for what you order. Luncheon, 50 cents.

Denver to Kansas City; Denver to Chicago; St. Paul to St. Louis. Full information on request.

Cove Items

Miss Stella Seivers left Monday night for Dayton, Wash., where she will spend a few months with relatives.

Mrs. H. H. French who has been in Portland since before Christmas returned home Friday.

There have been a few cases of scarlet fever in the Cove of late. There are no serious cases at the present time.

The Cove will have electric lights by June. Active work is going on at the power plant at the head of Mill Creek which power will be transmitted through different parts of the county by the Grande Ronde Electric Company.

Union County's fourth of July celebration will be held in the Cove this year and big preparations will be made for the event.

Miss Bonnie Seivers entertained a few of her friends at a High Five party Friday evening.

The people of this section are more than pleased to hear of the assurance of an electric line which will be put through from La Grande by the Eastern Oregon Development Company and expect to be going from Cove around the country by next fall.

The community was grief stricken Sunday morning to hear of the death of Mr. Arthur Payne who died of consumption at midnight Saturday after an illness of several months. Mr. Payne was but 25 years of age and one of the noblest and brightest young men in the county. He was raised in the Cove graduated from the Cove schools and finished his education in Portland and Walla Walla. He was manager of the large Payne farm a short distance from town.

To the end he had hopes of his recovery and on the day of his death was able to sit on the porch and walk to his bed that night, realizing his condition only a few hours before death. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Vina Payne, and two married sisters to mourn his death. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon from the M. E. Church in the Cove.

English Army Estimates

London March 13—The army estimates for 1905-06 issued today total $149,065,000, an increase of $4,915,000 over the last estimate. The increase is due to the provision of $6,065,000 for the rearmament of the artillery. Otherwise there would have been a decrease. The estimates provide for a total force, home and colonial and exclusive of India, of 221,300 men.

Music

E. P. Tait, the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley, is still in the ring. During my vacation I made it my business as well as pleasure to attend his music lessons, and in fact everything in my line of business and I found that I as a teacher, and interpreter of music am still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piano course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Church and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Pupils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in music.

Croup

Begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment to the throat. Mrs. A. Villet, New Castle, Colo., writes March 19th, 1901: "I think Ballard's Horehound Syrup a wonderful remedy, and so pleasant." 25c, 50c and $1. Newlin Drug Co.

The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the last 3rd grades.
