Coming Home

We are in receipt of a postal from Mrs Thomas Wade, from Orange Cal., requesting the discontinuance of the daily until their return home. Mrs Wade states that Mr Wade and daughter Jessie, likewise herself, are anxious to see Oregon again. "California is grand with its sunshine, flowers and oranges, but we like Oregon best. While we will miss the oranges, there will be satisfaction in seeing a good apple and to have a drink of cold water once more." They will start north tomorrow and expect to reach home about the first of the month.

Enterprise Lights

E J Forsythe has commenced active work on the new electric light power. It will be located on Benj. Boswell's farm one mile west of town. The ditch and flume will be seven-eighths of a mile long and will furnish abundant power for all time. Enterprise Democrat

IDEAL TREATMENT FOR NEURASTHENIA

Neurasthenia, or nervous prostration is that condition of the nervous system which results from an overdrawn nervous bank account.

Human beings inherit a certain amount of vital force, varying, of course, in different individuals; and if they order their lives either from choice or necessity to accomplish more than Nature has provided nerve force to do, vital bankruptcy results. especially if some bodily infirmity is exhausting a portion of their vital power.

A source of trouble—in home cooked meals is their lack of variety. You have no choice of viands. Your appetite is jaded one day. When you sit down to dinner at home the menu contains everything you do not want. It is different here.—Providing for so many, we can offer the greatest variety.—If you do not care for one item on the bill of fare choose another. They are all good, but the choice is yours. Try it for a while, and bring that tired wife of yours with you.
