We have good schools.
We have many churches.
We have an unexcelled climate.

We have a rich productive valley.

We have a variety of resources.

We have a $25,000 railroad payroll.

We are a city of homes.

We are a wealthy county.

We have five rural free deliveries.

We have money in our banks.

We have over thirty saw mills

We have seven flour mills.

Oh well, we have one of the best cities and counties in the state, all we ask is for an opportunity to show the actual home-seeker our valley. If he will come, Nature will do the rest.

We need population, and the population is coming daily by the train load. The only trouble is that they have purchased tickets 300 miles west of Grande Ronde valley. They do have stop-over privileges, however, few know this. Why cannot something be done to get now and then one to stop off? Why do we have to wait until all the vast territory between us and the Pacific is filled before our turn is reached, as in the present order of things? Let us go fishing.

Incidentally, the Order of the American Eagle is a decoration the nations of the world would be proud to wear.

Notwithstanding he is more than 60, the Laird of Skibo protests that he can write better than the man who put his name on the Chadwick notes.

The Paris papers state that the Russian indemnity to the North Sea fishermen totals $225,000. Henceforth the trawlers will not be compelled to strain their consciences in lying about their catches.

Irrigate Your Lands

We have a number of shares of the Capital Stock of the La Grande Irrigation Company which we will sell. Parties desiring to purchase, should see us at once as work of placing the ditch in shape for the summer's irrigation will be commenced soon.

FORAGE FOR THE PACK MULE

The newspapers are the pack mules for the community.

They carry loads for every private enterprise that is found in the city; they boom private business day and night; they give column after column to churches, societies, commercial clubs, labor unions and organizations of business men; fight battles for the city without hope of reward excepting the good will of the community, and make enemies for themselves by defending citizens and institutions and run a general free advertising bureau for the community, that is only equalled in scope by the free soup houses run by the Salvation Army.

All these things are part of the load of the willing pack mule, and he never complains at the weight of the load.

But he does complain when business men give forage that rightfully belongs to the pack mule to some other fellow who is not entitled to it. When money goes out of town for job work, or goes to some transient concern that does not fight the battles of the community, then the pack mule has a right to complain. When you have any forage to give out, give it to the newspapers, the pack mules that carry your loads while others sleep.—Pendleton East Oregonian.
