AL ANDREWS

A source of trouble—in home cooked meals is their lack of variety. You have no choice of viands. Your appetite is jaded one day. When you sit down to dinner at home the menu contains everything you do not want. It is different here.—Providing for so many, we can offer the greatest variety.—If you do not care for one item on the bill of fare choose another. They are all good, but the choice is yours. Try it for a while, and bring that tired wife of yours with you.
