About Falsehood

The San Francisco Bulletin of recent date had a sermonette on "Classification of Liars and Notes on the Species." Among the "notes" are some that bear repeating. Here are a few:

"A liar is dishonest, and, though he is never in danger of the law, yet he is nevertheless, a criminal, though his crime is not defined in the codes."

"Society can protect itself from the burglar and murderer, but society has no protection against the liar, and notwithstanding the fact that a man may be universally dubbed a liar, there is always some who places confidence in him."

"Lying, when pursued as a fine art, both in action and in speech, often proves a paying policy for a brief space of time."

"His career of fraud may be a long one and his success, built upon a foundation of deceit, may outwardly appear strong when in reality it is founded upon sand."

"A constitutional liar likes to exaggerate his own importance or to please, while on the other hand, the confirmed liar lies through deliberate intent and design, and lies not only in speech but in action. Of the three liars, the liar because of timidity, the constitutional liar and the confirmed liar, the last is the worst because he is dangerous."

MUSIC

Music

R P Tait, the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley, is still in the ring. During my vacation I made it my business as well as pleasure to attend concerts, operas, and in fact everything in my line of business and I found that I as a teacher, and interpreter of music am still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piano course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Church and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Pupils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in m.

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.
MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.
