LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs N B Kelly is reported to be very sick at her home on Depot street.

Mr and Mrs L. Denham have been visiting in La Grande during the past week, from Elgin.

There will be a meeting, for men only, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Mr William Smith, who has been to Elgin to attend to business matters at that place, left this forenoon for Twin Falls, Idaho.

M H Stoll who has been very ill with pneumonia is rapidly recovering. This will be gratifying news to his many friends.

Mr H F Moore, wife and daughter, of Eugene, arrived in the city this morning on an extended visit to the family of Mr Sanford Baker.

There are seven milk wagons distributing milk in this city. Aside from these regular dairies there are town cows and bucket routes too numerous to mention.

F E Bragg, county School Superintendent, was down from La Grande Monday looking after the Union county educational exhibit, which will be displayed at the Lewis and Clark Centennial.—Elgin Recorder.

Rev O H King last evening gave an entertainment to Sunday school class No 7 of the Central Church of Christ. The entertainment consisted of playing games, engaging in pleasant and instructive conversation, after which refreshments were served.

Mr J A Oliver last evening entertained, at his home, Sunday school class No 6 of the Central Church of Christ. The class was composed entirely of young girls, and a most enjoyable time was experienced. Games were played and refreshments served, and a most enjoyable time was experienced by all present.

Union county has been noted for a number of years for fine horses but it is quite noticeable that our stock is being rapidly improved and we are producing more heavy horses than formerly.

Os-te-op-a-ty

The grand old man of medicine are not generous givers of drugs. The fresh graduate is the one who booms trade for the apothecary. Which class knows the effects of this drug proposition best?

It is a propitious sign of the times that in most localities physicians of other schools are now saying a good word for Osteopathy and are recommending its trial to some of their discouraged patients.

Since Osteopathy is a broad science and requires much technical training to perfect it as a manual art, it follows that mail-course "graduates" are not at all competent to offer themselves as Osteopathic physicians.
