Prison Library

Are you sending your books to the Sheriff's office? Are you helping make a library for the county jail? Look through your library tomorrow and pick out the books you will never use again and phone 354 and some one will call for them, or phone the Sheriff's office, or what is better still, send the books to the office yourself. Help just a little. Now, magazines are all right, but bound books are better, for there is the appearance of a permanence about them, and there is the force of the gift itself that makes it do more good in the opinion of the prisoner. Books do not go out of date like magazines do, and they are thus always new. Go through your books now, and make place on your shelves for new ones.

Methodist Special Meetings

The special meetings which have been in progress at the M. E. Church for the past five weeks will be continued through this week. The Rev. Gillilan and the members of his church feel that the interest is too great to permit the meeting to close as was intended at the close of last week. The afternoon meetings will be held at the residences of those interested as was the custom last week. The Pastor Gillilan preached two powerful sermons yesterday which were listened to with interest by a large congregation. In the afternoon Rev. Day, pastor of the Baptist church addressed a men's meeting in an able manner at the M. E. Church. This meeting was well attended and will result in much good. This meeting was a union meeting in which all the ministers took part.

R. P. Tait, the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley, is still in the ring.
