LOCAL ITEMS

Senator Fulton left Washington, Monday for home. He has made a splendid record.

Mr A B Conley returned Saturday evening for a business trip of several days to Portland.

Miss Fannie Bull returned this morning from a short visit to relatives at Hilgard.

Little Ruth, the daughter of Mr Frank Childers, is very ill with a severe case of the tonsillitis.

Mr R M Oliver who has been visiting his son at Lake View the past few months has returned home.

The stone work on the L. D S Tabernacle is nearly completed and the brick work will be commenced in a few days.

Do not allow other arrangements to keep you away from the grand concert to be given at the L D S meeting house March.

Mr. and Mrs. H W Dwight, who reside on Catherine creek, came over yesterday to visit Mrs. Hannah Chaplin, who is very sick.

Miss Lulu Lorenz, who has been visiting friends in the city for the past few days, returned to her home at Cove this forenoon.

Sheriff Brown, of Baker City passed through the city this forenoon enroute home, after conveying Baker County convicts to Salem.

Mr E O Snyder, of Tennessee arrived in the city this forenoon and left to day for Elgin where he expects to make his future home.

Mr Cortez, one of the traveling agents for the Crescent Knitting mills of this city, left this morning on a business trip through Idaho.

The Baker county grand jury has returned over fifty indictments against the saloon keepers of the county for violation of the gambling and Sunday laws.

The condition of Mrs Hannah Chaplin practically remains the same and she is in a very critical condition with little hope of recovery.

The ladies of the W C T U are arranging to have their president the successor of the late Francis E Willard pay them an official visit in the near future.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church will give a social tomorrow (Tuesday eve) at the home of Mr. T N Gollithon on Adams Avenue. All are invited.

The I O O F lodge of this city is arranging to pipe water to their cemetery. The expense will be considerable but water is all that is required to make this one of the most desirable cemeteries in eastern Oregon. It is the intention of the lodge to have the water ready for use by the first of June.

There were three appendicitis operations at the Baker City hospital last week. By the way La Grande certainly offers a splendid opportunity for the successful maintenance of a hospital. We do not believe there is another city of the size of La Grande in the states of Idaho, Washington or Oregon that supports a hospital.

The Rev Horace M Ramsey, of this city, has accepted a call to the pastorate of St Stephen's Episcopal Church Portland Ore, and will begin work there next Sunday. This will be his first pastorate. He has been an assistant while pursuing his studies. St Stephen's is located in the heart of Portland and presents a good field for parochial work.

These rains make the heart of the best grower light. He can see increased tonnage in every drop.

The city council will meet tonight and the newly elected officers commence upon their administration.

Uncle Tom tonight at the Opera house. This makes the third time that this company has appeared in this city under the present management, and they have always given satisfaction.

A B Conley while in the city today stated that, as usual, Grande Ronde was alright. He had reference to the delightful rain that has been general all over this county during the past two days.

The members of the board of directors of the Grande Ronde Agricultural Society are in session this afternoon, and the question as to whether or not there will be a county fair held this year, will be decided at this meeting.

It might be a good idea for the city to experiment with a few cement crossings in the business portion of the city where the heavy traffic is. The present system is very expensive and to say the least, unsatisfactory much of the time.

Mrs N S Kelly who has been quite sick for several days is reported to be much better this afternoon.

The La Grande Investment Co is building a neat dwelling in Grandy's second addition.

Grande Chancellor Carl [of the Knights of Pythias of the state arrived this morning from Albany and will pay the La Grande lodge an official visit tonight. All members are expected to be present.

Born

LEISHMAN—In this city on March 20 to Mr. and Mrs. J H Leishman, a ten pound son.

A source of trouble—in home cooked meals is their lack of variety. You have no choice of viands. Your appetite is jaded one day. When you sit down to dinner at home the menu contains everything you do not want. It is different here.—Providing for so many, we can offer the greatest variety.—If you do not care for one item on the bill of fare choose another. They are all good, but the choice is yours. Try it for a while, and bring that tired wife of yours with you.
