LOCAL ITEMS

Hon Chas E Cochran, of Union, who has been in the city on business, returned home this forenoon.

Mr Dan Sommer and wife, of Elgin, who have been in the city visiting, left for their home this morning on the Elgin Branch.

Rev J D Gillilan of the Methodist church left this forenoon to spend the day with Rev Smith, pastor of the M E church at Elgin, who has had an accident, the result of which is a few broken ribs. Rev Gillilan will return on the afternoon train, and fill the pulpit tonight.

Mr O E Bartlett, who left the city last Friday for a visit to Walla Walla, returned home this forenoon.

Mr. Frank Childers, the newly elected deputy marshal of this city, wishes the public to know that those who wish to find him when he is wanted in an official capacity, will find him at the office of the Recorder at the stroke of each hour from six p m until six a m, or as near that time as possible, and when not detained by official duties.

Married

JONES-CARNAHAN—In Elgin Ore, Monday March 20, 1905, Mr E E Jones and Miss Mattie Carnahan, at the home of the brides parents Rev Parker pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating. Mr and Mrs Jones are both well and favorably known in this vicinity, the groom having resided in this city a number of years during which time has by his straightforward conduct made many friends. The bride is one of Elgin's most lovable young ladies and will be welcomed by Mr Jones's host of friends who join with the Observer in wishing them hearty congratulations.

HERR-SPENCER—In this city at the home of the bride's parents, W D Herr and Minnie M Spencer, by Rev. O H King. They are both well known and highly respected.

Cement Walks

Messrs Scott & Kuhn have the contract for the building of three cement walks, one in front of the La Grande National Bank, in front of J D McKennon's, and in front of Dr. C T Bacon's home. Let the good work go on. Both sides of Adams Ave should have cement walks. One of the large property owners while in the office today said he stood ready at any time to pay his proportion towards a paved street. That will come later, but let us have the cement walks first.

MRS. FORAKER'S TESTIMONY

Osteopathy heralds the dawn of a new era for woman. It lightens her burden of sorrow and gives her health, strength and buoyancy in countless cases after the prevailing treatments of other schools have utterly failed. The venerable Founder of this school of practice will, therefore, go down the ages as one of the world's greatest benefactors of womankind.

FOR RENT—One six room house, with bath room, on the corner of P and Sixth streets. Inquire of J Anthony.

Mr Ed Morelock of Elgin who has been in the city on business returned home this forenoon.

Mr Woodson Gray of Elgin was in the city yesterday on business, but returned home this morning.

The report of the city treasurer will appear tomorrow showing the total revenues of the city for the past year.

Miss Dora Jett left this morning for an extended visit to her brother Will, at Portland, who is baggage master at the Union depot at that place.

Ex-state senator Justice Wade, who now resides at Walla Walla was in the city today and left on the Elgin branch this morning for a visit to points on the line.

It will pay you to call and listen to J H Peare tell the story of Jo, the son of chief Joseph. For verification of his remarks he will show you the skull of the remarkable young man.

Mr and Mrs Ohas. Rofferty of Madison Iowa, are in the city, guests of Mr and Mrs O. J. Ruckman. Mr Rofferty, after being shown over the city by Mr Ruckman, stated that during his western trip he had seen nothing which so impressed him as a place to locate, as La Grande, and he states that he will more than likely return and engage in business here.

Conductor O J Ruckman is taking a "much needed rest" this week. The reason therefore is that while splitting wood yesterday afternoon the handle of the axe struck the chopping block deflecting the course of the axe in such a manner as to strike his thumb splitting that member through the first joint. Mr Ruckman states that he will take no more wood contracts.

Bicycle riders will keep off the side walks from this time on or they will have an accounting with the City Recorder.

A Good Dinner

will make its presence felt in spite of all efforts to conceal it. The odors from our kitchen would give any man an appetite so delicious is the aroma arising from the best of foods skillfully cooked.

By Rights

we ought to charge extra for this, but we do not, because we know that once a man has tasted our foods he will be a steady eater at our tables. And the meal will leave him some change in his pocket, too.
