WHAT IT COST TO LIVE

The U. S. Treasury Department on March 1, 1905 sent the Observer its monthly circulation statement showing the amount of money and the population of in the U S on that date. It gave the population, excluding our insular possession at 82,794,000. This starts the inquiry as to the cost of the material consumed in providing an average living for all these people. To answer this question reference is here made to a total on pages 2,551 and 2 in the January number, 1905, of the commerce and finance just issued by the Bureau of Statistics which gives the cost of all the articles that are consumed per capita in the United States for living.

This total gives the prices proportioned to consumption in the United States on Feb. 1, 1905 as follows: for bread stuff $18.082, for meats $8.031, for dairy and garden stuff $13.656, for other food $10.816, for clothing $16.887, for metals used $16.170, $17, for miscellaneous articles $17.40 making the total cost of all the material used for a living amount to $101.042 per annum.

The same table gives the cost of living per capita in 1860 as follows. For bread stuffs $23.652, for meats $10.084, for dairy and garden stuff $14.169, for other food $8.978, for clothing $22.094, for metal used $26.082, for miscellaneous articles $16.572, making the total cost of living in 1860 foot up $121.631. These figures show that the material consumed per capita for living cost $20.589, more in 1860 in the United States than in 1905

To pay for the material consumed for one year by the 82,794,000 of people now in the U S at the figures given out by the Bureau of Statistics as the cost of living for 1905 will require $10,070,343,014.

If it cost as much now to pay for the material consumed per capita as it did in 1860 the amount would have to be increased by $1,704,346,566.

DISSIPATED RUSSIA

Metropolitan Antonius has issued a remarkable pastoral address concerning the Russia of today, in which he assigns frivolity, dissipation and impiety as the cause of the humiliation of the nation, and preaching repentance and the fear of God.

"It is not the first time," the pastoral says, "that on holy Russia has fallen dire misfortunes; but then Russia was a wholly different country, strong in the love of holy religion and impregnable in devotion to the emperor and the fatherland. Now while carrying on a great war, instead of congregating in a spirit of high and self denying patriotism, internal dissension reigns in the land, everything is overthrown, science is neglected and what is holy is tramped upon. With right we are despaired by all, mocked at by all the people of the earth. Awake, then, holy orthodox Russia; fear God; cleanse thyself from the stain of the foulness of thy sins; repent, enlighten thyself, and God will give thee grace."

Have you selected that book you intend to donate to the prison library.

Contractor Geo. Kreiger, who is always a close observer, states that this is going to be a banner building year in La Grande and that he expects to burn many thousand more brick this year than he did last season.

A hospital has just been opened in Heppner. La Grande is among the very best openings on the coast for such an undertaking. Where is there another city of 5000 people without a hospital. We are growing and we will be very much surprised to see the present year pass away without such an institution here.
