Mr Rosenbaum spent Sunday with friends in Union

Frank Myrick of the Cove was a La Grande visitor Saturday.

Special services will commence next Sunday in the Baptist church. Rev. Day will be assisted by Rev. Geo. T. Ellis.

Get figures on a cement walk from Scott & Kuhn. If any of the walk they put in shows defects for a year after it is put down, they will replace it at their own expense

The city council of Walla Walla is about to commence a campaign in the interest of a pure milk supply, and Boise city is considering the proposition to pay their mayor a salary of $1000 per annum and the members of the council for their services. Our neighbors are growing.

Another big real estate deal last week was the purchase by Hon J H Dobbin of the Harry Keif ranch on Lower Prairie creek: consideration $11,200. This ranch of 320 acres is in excellent shape, all under cultivation and has good buildings. Business men claim Mr Dobbin has secured a very valuable ranch at a moderate price.—Joseph Herald.

Willis Moss, who purchased the Neville place east of town last fall, arrived last Thursday afternoon with his family and they have entered into the full enjoyment of one of the finest homes in the county. Mrs Moss is delighted with her new location. This was her first visit to the county. The people of Walla Walla gladly welcome them.—Walla Walla News

If you are thinking of a new sidewalk in front of your lot, or around your house, why not put it in of cement instead of wood? The first cost of a cement walk will be but little more than for plank and it will never need repairing or replacing, at least not during your life. The cement walk always looks good. If you are thinking of a walk at all, drop a card to Scott & Kuhn care of Sommer hotel, and let them give you figures. They will replace any portion of the walk that shows defect a year after it is put down.

Manager O E Harper of the Creamery at this place returned Saturday evening from Pendleton, where he has been installing a branch plant of the Blue Mountain Creamery Co.

If you are a lover of Music, come to the recital at the Presbyterian Church tomorrow (Tuesday) at 3 p m and you will be more than repaid for your trouble.

The many friends of John Bay will be pleased to learn that he is resting as well as could be expected, it is now thought that he will soon be able to again be up and around. Mr Bay was operated upon Saturday and for a time it was thought he would not be able to withstand the shock.

The funeral of the late Mrs Hannah Chaplin was held this afternoon at the Baptist Church, the Rev J Franklin Day officiating. The church was filled with old time friends who came to pay the last respects to the one whom they had known for many years. She will long be remembered by a host of friends as one who was ever ready to assist by word or deed those who needed help most.

No big cracks will be found in the cement walks put down by Scott & Kuhn. Both members of the firm are well known here and they agree to replace any pieces that show such defects. Drop them a card in care of Sommer Hotel, or see Mr Scott. Their prices will be found right.

Hon. Joseph Howell, United States Congressman from Utah, and his wife arrived in this city yesterday on a short visit to Mr J B Stoddard and other friends at this place. Mr Stoddard is an old college schoolmate and chum of the Congressman. Since the adjournment of the legislature, Representative Howell and his wife have been on an extended tour through the southern states attending the Mardi Gras at New Orleans, enroute. They left this forenoon for Baker City at which place they will visit friends for a short time before returning to their home in Utah.

A Good Dinner

will make its presence felt in spite of all efforts to conceal it. The odors from our kitchen would give any man an appetite so delicious is the aroma arising from the best of foods skillfully cooked.

By Rights

We ought to charge extra for this, but we do not, because we know that once a man has tasted our foods he will be a steady eater at our tables. And the meal will leave him some change in his pocket, too.
