LOCAL ITEMS

Conductor Geo Gourley left this morning for Portland.

Miss Eliza Young, of Hilgard, is visiting in the city.

The many friends of Mrs Russell W Cross will be pained to learn she is quite ill.

Mr Wm Lewis, wife and daughter returned Saturday evening from a two weeks visit in Spokane.

Miss Jeanette Clark, one of Sampers school teachers was a visitor in Baker City over Sunday—Herald.

Attorney Charles E Cochran, of Union who has been in the city on a business visit, returned home this forenoon.

Arthur and Frank Rowe left this morning for Pendleton where they have secured employment from J E Smith the wealthy stockman.

H H Andrews, of the Oregon Electric Power Co., is in the city today in the interest of his company. They contemplate using the waters of Eagle Creek.

James Hutchinson was over from Union yesterday looking after his interests in the sale of the Union railroad which took place yesterday by the sheriff.

Mr W D Spencer, the planing mill man of Elgin, has been in the city on business, and returned home this morning. Mr Spencer reports the lumber business as flourishing in that part of the country and states that, for the last six weeks their mills have been sending out an average of four car loads of lumber each day.

H B Smith, Hutchinson Bros., Will Wright, and attorney C E Cochran came over from Union yesterday to attend the sheriff's sale of the Union railroad. This is simply another step in a chain of legal complications that has twice been to the supreme court and is undoubtedly headed that way again.

The property yesterday brought $10,267.32 and means that the management will pass from the hands of the Hutchinson Bros to the Union bank, whether or not to remain permanently cannot be ascertained until the final termination of another suit which is pending.

Mrs. Thomas Badge went to Union this morning and will return this evening.

Mr J J Sachante is among the new arrivals to this city during the past few days and is trying to find a house to move into. He came from Little Falls, Minn.

The funeral of the late Mrs Eliza, both Stotis was held this afternoon at the family home, the Rev J W Uompton officiating. The funeral was attended by a host of old time friends. Henry & Carr, funeral directors.

A B Conley left last evening for Portland, and stated that this is ideal wheat weather for this section for this season of the year. These frequent showers are bringing the grain up and there were never better prospects for a bounteous crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lewis and daughter Bertha, returned last evening from a week's visit at Spokane and Walla Walla. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Mrs. Cora Hedling, of Walla Walla, who will remain here visiting a few weeks.

The city council is figuring today with the Washington Pipe and Foundry Company through the company's agent Mr Frank E Mendenhall for ten thousand feet of wood pipe to be used to extend the mains across the track. This wood pipe is very highly recommended and the price gives an advantage of over seven hundred dollars over the same size iron pipe. The company which offers this wood pipe is the same which furnished the Morgan Lake company with a portion of its pipe.

L L McKennon, one of the substantial Sandridge farmers was in the city today.

Dan McWaters came down from his Hilgard farm today, and reports no more snow than in the valley.

H C Montgomery is preparing to start for his placer mine up the river, to arrange for the spring seasons run.

The many friends of Mrs G M Tsal who has been seriously ill for several weeks will be pleased to learn that she is improving.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY,

HARDWARE, CROCKERY ETC.

The first case of the saloon keepers who were indicted in Baker county for keeping open on Sunday resulted in an acquittal.

This weather will make it possible for the Grande Ronde Lumber Co to drive their logs from up the river to their mill.

Mr W T Cross of this city left this forenoon for Omaha, where he goes to secure a car load of hogs. Mr Cross has just returned from that place lately with a car of hogs, with which he had splendid success in shipping.

In this issue appears a call for bids for the building of a reservoir and the laying of pipe for the installation of a water system for the I O O F cemetery. The Odd Fellows expect to have the entire system in operation by the first of May, if the weather permits.

Died

HEAPS—In this city, Tuesday, March 28, 1915, C W Heaps, age 26 years. The deceased leaves a wife and four children. The oldest child is six years of age and the youngest was born yesterday morning. He has been ill several weeks. The funeral arrangements have not been made yet. The body is in charge of Giffin & Hogan, undertakers.
