When shall I obtain my hopes, my wishes? Shall I ever become wealthy? Can I trust my friends? Have I enemies? When shall I marry? How often shall I marry? Shall I ever be divorced? Does another share the love which rightfully belongs to me? If so, who? Am I loved in return? Have I a rival in my love? When shall I marry? How many children shall I have? When will my domestic troubles end? How can I make my life and home happy? When will my absent friend return? Why do I not receive a letter? Should I invest my money? In what should I invest? Is my disease curable? Shall I win my lawsuit? Palma tells you all these things and a great many more. She settles lover's quarrels, reunites the separated and shows you how to overcome all difficulties.

PLOT TO ESCAPE IS DISCOVERED

[By Scripps News Association]

Los Angeles, Cal. March 28—The perfected plans of a jail delivery to release the prisoners on the second floor of the county jail were discovered this morning. Mrs. C. K. Schmidt, the wife of a wealthy Long Branch contractor, under sentence of seven years for burglary, smuggled files, saws and money into the prison for her husband and the other prisoners in the plot. This morning the woman appealed for an extension of ten days for her husband's removal to the penitentiary, the time having arrived for the removal. The request was granted, but soon afterwards the plot was discovered. Schmidt will be sent to the penitentiary at once.

War Fund Granted

[By Scripps News Association]

Rome March 29—The Premier today agreed to the demand of the Minister of War to vote 20,000,000 lire to complete Italy's military armament.

Nyssa Murder

Nyssa Ore. March 29—H. Megordon a prominent rancher living near Nyssa, shot and killed his wife at 6:30 o'clock yesterday in a fit of jealous rage. He at once came to Nyssa, was taken into custody and is now in the village lock-up.

The Megordon family, consisting of the parents and six children, was highly respected.

For a long time Megordon has been addicted to fits of intense jealousy, which have been so marked as to make him conspicuous, though in the popular mind no suspicion has ever attached to Mrs. Megordon. His frame of mind had led to many scenes between the couple and the relations had lately become so strained that it had, it is said, been mutually agreed that the divorce court should be invoked as the only remedy.

Megordon was on the streets of Nyssa this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock and seemed in a normal mood, chatting pleasantly with friends upon different topics. A little later he returned to his home and, according to the account of the tragedy given by the children, at once began a quarrel with his wife. In the course of the altercation the second son, Robert, aged 15 interfered in his mother's behalf. Megordon drew a gun and shot at, but missed the boy, who at once took flight. Meanwhile Mrs. Megordon had left the house and started for a neighbor's. When the boy disappeared, Megordon turned again to the woman pursued her, and on overtaking her shot at her three or four times at close range. One shot took effect in her side, and it would appear proved almost instantly fatal.

When Mrs. Megordon fell Megordon turned the gun on himself and inflicted a wound that is pronounced so trifling that his serious intention in firing it is one of the questions the coroner's jury will probably be asked to consider. He came back to Nyssa at once and asked surgical attention. When those first at the side of the stricken woman arrived she was dead, where she had fallen.

The local authorities have taken care of the case thus far, but the county authorities have been notified.

Mormons Buy Jail

Carthage Ill. March 29—Because of historical associations the members of the Mormon church have purchased for $4000 the old jail here where the first prophet and the founder of the faith met a tragic death at the hands of a mob. The old structure was not worth over $1500. It is proposed to establish a mission suburb in the building. In this connection, announcement that the Mormons are coming back to Illinois after the lapse of half a century and are to establish three new churches, has caused comment.

PRESIDENT HAYS IS INDICTED

[By Scripps News Association]

Los Angeles March 29—"Tom" Hays, the former political boss of Riverside who so lavishly entertained President Roosevelt at the time of his visit to the Pacific coast, was this morning placed on trial for wrecking the Orange Grower's National Bank at Riverside, of which he was cashier. Two indictments were consolidated, one a charge of misappropriating money, and the other of falsifying a report to the controller of the currency.

Situation Serious

[By Scripps News Association]

Washington March 29—The State Department today received a cablegram from Minister Powell to the effect that the situation at Haiti was serious, and that the revolutionary spirit was growing. A warship will probably be detailed to that place for immediate service.
