LOCAL ITEMS

Attorney McAllister, of the Anti Saloon League will speak at the Baptist church tomorrow (Friday) evening at 7:30. This meeting is preliminary to the meetings to be held by himself and Dr. Taft in the various churches Sunday.

McKennon & Leadbetter and Bock & Thomas have 400 head of cattle on the head waters of Five Point creek. As the snow is reported to be 16 inches deep in that vicinity, they are afraid they may have to bring them out.

Mr Will Ashcraft and Mr James Wodskow, who have been to Twin Falls, Idaho, returned to La Grande this morning, but left on the Elgin branch for Imbler. Both of the gentlemen seem well pleased with the country surrounding Twin Falls, and state that they will return there to locate permanently in the course of two weeks.

The Epworth League of Island City will give a mystery tea Friday evening at the home of Mrs Ed Kiddie.

Special Service

March 31 will conclude the fifth year of O E King's service in the Central Church of Christ, and on Sunday, April 2, special services will be held. All members are asked to be present and all friends are cordially invited. At the close of the morning service a light lunch will be served in the lecture room and at 2:30 p m, a meeting for prayer, praise etc., will be held. Matters of interest as to future work will be considered at this meeting.

Central Church has reason for rejoicing in view of the blessings of these years, and with the forces standing loyally together in Christ's service, many good things are in store for the congregation.

FOR RENT—Five room house in good location. Inquire of C Ralston at Nebraska Cash store.

FOUND—In this city last night an umbrella with silver mountings and silk cover, at the intersection of Fourth and P. streets. The loser will call for name of finder at this office.
