LOCAL ITEMS

There will be about ten graduates in the Union high school this year.

Mrs. L. L. McKennon of Alicel is reported to be quite sick.

Mrs. J. L. Carter, of Hood River, is visiting in Union.

Presiding Elder J. D. Gillilan, left this morning for Baker City and near by points. He expects to return Friday of next week.

We noticed several boys on the streets this morning with their fishing rods, headed for the river.

Do not forget the dance next Monday evening at Armory hall. The members of Company L assure all who attend a royal good time.

Mr and Mrs Fred Wilcox left last night for Spokane, where Mr. Wilcox has a position of traveling salesman for a wholesale grocery house.

The friends of Mrs N. S. Kelley will be pleased to know that she was able to sit up a little yesterday for the first time.

Gus Benglesdorf is down from his homestead on Whiskey creek and reports that the snow is about eight inches deep on the ridges.

The La Grande Iron Works are engaged today on a piece of work from the Spencer planing mill of Elgin. They appreciate the advantage of such an institution in this city.

The recent snow has made the placer miners up the Grande Ronde happy. For a time things looked as if there would be a shortage of water, but now a sufficient quantity is assured.

Do not forget that you are invited to attend the M. E. Social next Wednesday evening at the home of Mr and Mrs George L. Cleaver. You will have a splendid time if you attend.

B. Logsdon has returned from the scenes of his boyhood in the grand state of Missouri. It had been over thirty years since he was there and naturally was greatly surprised at the changes. Kansas City when he left, was only 50,000, today it boasts of over 400,000 people. Other cities have made a similar growth. Good farm land is selling for $50 per acre and the people are generally prosperous.

Jeweler P. A. Steine has located in Elgin.

Attorney J. F. Baker and wife are visiting in Wallawa county.

The substitution of the Grande Ronde Electric Co is assuming the proportions of a sky scraper.

F. K. Nordhoff, one of the High School teachers is quite ill with inflammatory rheumatism.

Chas. Olsen, head miller for the Imbler flouring mill is in the city today.

The La Grande base ball boys have arranged for a series of games with the Pendleton and Walla Walla teams.

The La Grande creamery installed a five horse electric motor yesterday which from this time all will turn the big churn and other machinery.

The many friends of Mr L. T. Harper will be pleased to learn that he is much better today and that is good ground now to hope for his recovery.

The La Grande Iron Works has the material for the enlargement of their casting plant. Their present capacity is one half tons, this will be increased to three and one half tons.

There will be work in the third rank, K. P. Monday night. All members in the city are requested to be present. Following the work there will be a social and banquet.

Did you attempt to pick up the sack on the Berry corner today? Many tried too, but there is no record of any one being successful.

FOR RENT—Six room house with all modern improvements. Located corner First and Main.
