The attention of our readers is called to the new ad of Ash Brothers which appears in this issue. It will well repay any one to read this ad carefully and note well the contents.

Members of the Modern Woodmen of America should not forget the meeting Wednesday evening. The County Convention will be held here during the day and it is planned to entertain the delegates in the evening. Let all Woodmen attend.

James A. Swart, for a number of years night operator for the O. R. & N. at Kamela, has resigned that position to take a position as passenger brakeman on the same line out of Starbuck, and will remove his family to Starbuck at once.

Several loads of wild cranes flew over the city last evening.

One of the deliverymen, Reynolds' team, ran away this forenoon and created considerable excitement and damage. It looked for a time as if the entire outfit would enter the Sommer House office but it shied off and sailed around and run into a team hitched in front of the La Grande Iron Works, belonging to B. F. Bell of the Cove, crushing one wheel and wrecking the buggy in several places.

Baker city is making an effort to secure a large sash and door factory. They certainly should be successful. There should be at least a dozen such enterprises in Eastern Oregon. The market for the product lies east of the Missouri river and the demands are enormous. We hope Baker City will be successful and there is no reason why one or two such enterprises could not be operated in this city. We are surrounded with the raw material.

Fishing Season is Here

I have a nice assortment of fishing tackle of all kinds. Poles, 5 cents to $10.00. Other articles in proportion.

I HAVE THE FLY HOOKS THAT CATCH THE FISH.
