LOCAL ITEMS

Attorney T H Crawford was in Baker City yesterday on legal business

Mr C H Prescott leaves tonight for Idaho, to be with his wife who is very sick.

Mr Press Lewis left this morning for a short business trip to North Powder.

Mr William Hindman, of Elgin who has been in the city on business, returned home this morning.

Rev Geo T Ellis left this morning for Elgin where he goes to preach the funeral of Mrs Arthur Weaver.

Miss Ellis, of Joseph, who has been visiting in Pendleton, spent last night in the city and left on the Elgin branch this morning for home.

The Methodist social last evening at the home of Mr and Mrs G L Olen was a success in every particular. In fact it was one of the most pleasant as well as profitable affairs ever given in this city.

Miss Elizabeth Noble who is teaching school in the Hindman district near Elgin was in the city yesterday, and returned to her school this morning.

Mr and Mrs Theo. Dudge and daughter, Miss Syd, went to Union this morning to attend the funeral of Mrs Hattie Smith who died in Southern California a few days hence whose funeral will be held in Union today.

Another ball team is being talked of and it will doubtless materialize, which will result in giving La Grande two first class teams this season. The idea at present suggested is the organization of an O R & N team, while possibly all the members may not be railroad employees, possibly the greater number will be. Those who may read this and are interested, are requested to call at Al Andrews and talk the matter over.

Jersey Cream Patent Flour.
Every sack guaranteed by Romig & Staples.

Baptist Meetings

Another good meeting and well attended last night at the Baptist church. Mr Ellis spoke on "The Man Seeking for a Bride" The sermon was very interesting and contained many good suggestions for the home life as well as pleading with his hearers to deal kindly and truly with God and themselves.

Mrs Perry's singing was much appreciated again last night.

Mr Ellis speaks again tonight. Come one and all Services 7:45

Married

BROOKS-FLANERY—In this city at 8:30 this morning by Justice of the peace John E Hough Mr Harry S Brooks and Miss Myrtle Flanery. The young people who are well known in this city left on the 9 o'clock train for Baker City where they will visit a few days with Mr Brooks mother. They will then return and make this city their home.

Easy Money

By Scripps News Association
Tokio April 6— One half of the domestic loan will be allotted to foreigners whose bids exceeded the entire issue. The treasury is planning for a fifth domestic loan of $50,000,000 to be submitted in May on the same terms as the fourth was.

Korea's Congratulations

[By Scripps News Association]
Tokio April 6— Prince Yiohalkak, a special ambassador, bearing the congratulations of Emperor of Korea on the success of the battle of Mukden, was granted an audience by the Emperor today.

Obeys The Law

(By Scripps News Association)
Temple Texas April 6—The President's special train was not scheduled to stop here today. But upon notification at Sherman that the city council of Temple has passed an ordinance requiring that all presidential trains stop at least ten minutes, the President heeded the unique appeal and the train made a short stop. There was a big crowd to whom he made a short but stirring address. Two thousand school children saw the President

President in Texas

(By Scripps News Association)
Waco, Texas April 6—Thousands of people greeted the President when his special train rolled into the station this morning at nine. He was met by a reception committee, consisting of Grand Army and Confederate organizations, and escorted to a park adjoining the station. Each person in the immense crowd, which had gathered to welcome him, waived an American flag, making a most beautiful and patriotic spectacle. Mayor Baker introduced the President who made a short, but stirring speech.

FOR RENT—Large, well furnished rooms at $7.00 per month. Inquire of Mrs A L Stover, at the Hills house, one block north of the round house.
