LOCAL ITEMS

Surveyor Arthur Curtis left this morning for Hlgard on business

A mixed stock train consisting of eleven cars of hogs and twenty cars of cattle left this afternoon for Portland.

The work of removing the cottage of Mrs. Zuber on the corner of Washington Avenue and Fir streets, which will be replaced with a modern dwelling commenced today.

I W Faulk was appointed a special police for the Old town last night by the council, the object being to see that the curfew law was respected in that portion of the city.

Secure your seats early for the Moon shiner's Daughter. From present indications the sign "standing room only" will be displayed when the opera house doors are thrown open the night of the performance.

By referring to the city treasurer's call for outstanding warrants it will be noted that we are just two years behind, which is the best showing made for a number of years. If we are not careful we will get out of debt. The city of La Grande is not insolvent by any means.

The first of the series of business men's meetings to be inaugurated by the Commercial Club will hold in the club parlors Tuesday evening, April 11th. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock sharp, and will be in session one hour only. Every member of the club is urged to attend.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Pfy left this morning for Hot Lake on a short visit

Dr Corpe, we are informed, contemplates the construction of a two story brick building on Adams Ave., formerly the Hasset residence

Senator Walter Pierce is in the city on business connected with the Grande Ronde Electric Co which is bringing power into the city from the Cove.

W R Hamilton has returned from a visit to his former home in Arkansas. Contractors are now figuring on the construction of a two story brick building on his property on the corner of Fir and Adams avenue

WT Cross arrived in the city this morning from Kearney Nebraska with eleven cars of hogs for the Union Meat Company at Portland Mr Cross says this was one of the hardest trips he has made for many years as he encountered a blizzard in the Rocky mountains which continued thirty six hours and had much trouble in keeping his stock from freezing. He was able to land here with only six head dead, which is a good record.

Baptist Meetings

The meetings at the Baptist church continue with increasing interest. Attendance was good last night. The meeting was intensely interesting from the beginning to the close. The afternoon meeting was especially helpful. The Lord was present in prayer and experience making known his love and power. It was good to be there.

Mr Ellis will speak tonight from the subject, "The arm of the flesh is insufficient."

Come out tonight and hear him, to fail to attend these meetings is to miss a spiritual treat. Christian come you need the closer walk with God bring your friend that they may meet the Saviour.

Mr Perry will sing tonight "Some where some time." Services at 7:45 Come and bring your friends with you.

Mr H E Neal, of Medical Springs is visiting in the city.

Knights Meet Here

The Knights of Pythias hold their district convention in this city on May 6th.

One of the features will be a competitive drill. The winning team will have the honor of being represented in the competitive drill before the grand lodge which meets in Portland, October 11.

It is expected that there will be teams at the La Grande convention from the Cove, the junior lodge in the district, from Enterprise, Wallowa, Elgin and La Grande.

Fishing Season is Here

I have a nice assortment of fishing tackle of all kinds Poles, 5 cents to $10.00. Other articles in proportion.

I HAVE THE FLY HOOKS THAT CATCH THE FISH.

Try them when you want to make a good catch.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY,
HARDWARE, CROCKERY ETC.

Mr George Miller of the Cove arrived in the city yesterday.

While Neil, the fifteen year old son of Mr and Mrs James McCoy was wrestling with a young friend this afternoon, he slipped and fell, the result being a severe fracture of the bones of the right arm near the wrist. Drs Biggers & Biggers reduced the fracture and Master Neil will soon be as good as new.

Mr Frank Conley, of the Cove, who passed through the city Monday en route to Prospect ranch, returned last night with a large number of horses, which he today took to his ranch near Cove.

Surveyor's Report

I hereby submit my report as to work done and surveys made.

I have surveyed and platted the following streets and recommend that the grade be established:

Depot street from 4th to Jefferson Avenue; Sixth street from Washington Avenue to I street; Fifth street from Depot to I street; O street from Washington to Cedar street; Fourth street from Jefferson Avenue to I street; Fir street from Adams Avenue to Monroe street; N Fir from Monroe Avenue to Sears street; Adams Avenue from Fourth street to the city limits
CLYDE R BEITZ, City Surveyor.
