Yesterday, April 9, was the 40th anniversary of the surrender of Gen. Lee of the Southern confederacy to Gen. Grant of the Union army.

D. M. Clark and wife came over from the Cove yesterday in company with Mr. Clark's mother who has been visiting them for some months and who returned to Washington last night.

Mr. J. W. Bickford, who has been employed in the creamery plant at this place, left last night for Pendleton, where he will be field agent for the Pendleton branch of the Blue Mountain Creamery Co.

Mrs. E. Hutchins, of La Grande, has arrived and will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hopper, until Sunday evening. With her are her two grand daughters, Roma Jacobson and Alberta Hopper.—Pendleton Ore.

Miss L. R. Lorenz was over from the Hot Lake yesterday returning this morning. She reports the Sanatorium crowded to its capacity and much will be done in the way of improvements this summer. She will remain at the lake a month.

J. T. Galloway and family returned this morning from an eighteen months visit in Florida. He states that his health was greatly benefited by his stay in Florida, and expects to return sometime within the next two years where he purchased a home. He returned to his Elgin home this morning.

The new cement walk in front of McKennons grocery store on Adams Avenue has been completed and presents the appearance of a well constructed piece of work. Work is rapidly progressing on the walk around the La Grande National Bank, and the others ordered by the council will be commenced, and pushed to completion at the earliest date possible.

A Fire Department will be organized at Haines Tuesday night.

Miss Mamie Reith and Miss Rohan expect to entertain the 401 club on Easter Monday.

Mr. Press Lewis left this morning for points in the state east of here in the interests of his business at this place.

H. B. Lewis left this morning for Baker City with the intention of increasing the business of the New York Insurance Co.

Query—Why are the Sundays always stormy and the Mondays so bright and pleasant? Young people only are expected to answer this.

Several complaints have been registered lately with the marshal calling his attention to an unusual number of tramps calling at houses for meals.

City Treasurer E. J. Walsh is having a very neat addition built to his house. When this is completed it will be one of the neatest cottages in that section of the city.

Local fishermen are making application to the state fish department for young fish to be placed in the various streams. So far applications have been made for nearly all of the principal streams in this county.

Fishermen are making life miserable for the trout in Ladd Creek. During the past few days many trout have contributed their share to the breakfast table and the catalogue of fishermen's stories.

For generosity and hospitality the people of La Grande stand at the head. Courteous and obliging, ever ready to favor a stranger, it is no wonder that the city has a good name.—Powder Valley Echo.

Mr. Scott, of the contracting firm of Scott and Kuhn, who is putting in the cement sidewalks, states that he could keep three crews busy just as well as a less number if the orders came in fast enough.

A Chicago firm has purchased 12,000 head of sheep of Wallowa growers which they will commence shipping east in a few weeks. Under the new law all sheep shipped out of the state must be dipped. This will undoubtedly provide a new industry for Elgin.
