Mr. Frank Craig was a Union visitor in this city last evening.

The general public will now be able to find the various city offices, as seat signs have been made which will be placed over the doors of the various offices. This is a good move

W J Snodgrass arrived last night from British Columbia, where he has been financially interested for several years. He is looking hale, and his strong right hand is always extended, as in the past, to his many friends.

Senator Pierce is in the city today in the interests of the Grande Ronde Electric Co. In conversation with an Observer representative, he stated that the machinery for the Cove transmission power plant was now on the way from San Francisco and that the company expected to have the Morgan lake plant completed by the latter part of August.

Gercus Bros of Baker City are now involving the stock and it is expected that, by the time this issue is in the hands of the readers, that they will be in possession of the Sommer House which has been under the management of A L Morris for the past two years. The gentlemen come highly recommended as up to date businessmen and will undoubtedly make a success of this well known hotel.

Mr Buhler of Elgin, who has been in the city on business, returned home this morning.

Representative Neil McLeod who has been in the eastern part of the state on business, returned here this morning and left on the Elgin branch for his home.

Chas. J Gray, traveling agent of the North-Western railroad with headquarters in Portland, is in the city. Like all the traffic railroad officials, he is impressed with the great travel that is coming to the Lewis and Clark fair. Not that the fair is the great drawing card, but the low rates the roads are offering, and the thousands who have had a long eye on the shores of the setting sun, are going to take advantage of these rates and see for themselves. Think of it, a rate of $45 from all Missouri river points to Portland and return, with stop over privileges.

Mr Raesch, the well known traveling man, returned a few moments ago from a trip to the Sandridge and stated that the home of Mr Harrison, who came here last fall from Nebraska and located near Imbler, lost his home by fire this afternoon. Mr Harrison has been sick for four weeks and had to be carried out. His wife and two little children saved nothing. The fire caught from the kitchen stove.

Bridegroom in Trouble

The principal business transacted in Justice Hough's court today was the case wherein O Archambault and Earnest H Bush, better known as Jack Bush are charged with stealing whisky and cigars from Chas Andersons saloon. The case went to trial this afternoon. This little legal enlargement works some what of a hardship upon the Bush family just at the time as Mr Bush had been the head of a family only some twenty four hours prior to his arrest. Justice Hough performed his marriage ceremony Monday night and issued a warrant for his arrest Tuesday evening. Bush's friends are certain that he will be able to clear himself and Jack says, never mind "Love will find a way"

The sales of the last fiscal year amounts to $10,057.92 that of the preceding year amounted to $9,088.52, being an increase of $1019.40 during the fiscal year ended.
