TAKE CHILDREN FROM PARENTS

Mexico City, April 13—The government of Sonora has issued orders for the separation from their mothers of all Yaqui children more than two years and less than 11 years of age. The women are to be deported with the men to the Isthmus of Tehuantepec and Yucatan and the children kept in Sonora and distributed among Mexican families in various parts of the state.

Catholic priests of Sonora are denouncing the move as inhuman, and are calling upon Mexican parents to refuse to accept the charges. Catholic papers are echoing the denunciations of the priests. The government authorities take the stand that if the Yaqui children of tender age are sent to the tropics of Mexico they will die, while if kept in Sonora they will be reared and become law abiding and industrious citizens of the community. The order of the Sonora government was approved by the federal authorities before it was issued.

UNCLE SAM HARD HEARTED

Seattle Wash., April 13—Edward L. Pangburn, chief clerk in the local United States engineer's office, cannot marry Miss Alida Wolsey, a stenographer in the same office, unless one of them resigns. The civil service commission of the engineering department of the army has made this ruling; according to a dispatch received from Washington today. The war department claims that the marriage and the consequent fact that Mrs Pangburn would have to serve under Mr Pangburn in the same office would make discipline hard to maintain.

It is probable that the young woman will resign. Pangburn states that the United States of America will not be embarrassed in the matter in the slightest degree

Fishing For Coyotes

Santa Fe N. M. April 12— Ranchmen in this country have discovered a scheme for getting rid of coyotes, which have been a source of almost endless trouble. Large fishhooks are being tied to bushes, placed some distance from the ground in order to force the animals to jump for the meat. When the jaws of the coyotes close upon the food they are caught by a hook and held suspended until killed. The plan is working extremely well, and ranchmen who have been losing chickens and lambs in large numbers are much pleased with the results.

Seattle Bench Show

Seattle Wash., April 13—The twelfth annual exhibition of the Seattle Kennel Club opened yesterday under happy auspices. The show from present indications, will be one of the most successful ever held in the northwest. The thoroughbred canines on exhibition number several hundred, and almost every breed known to fanciers is included in the list. The entries come from all parts of Washington, and from California, Oregon, British Columbia and other parts. The exhibition will continue until the end of the week.

Hindoo is Released

By Scripps News Association
Singapore April 13— The German collier "Hindoo", which was refused clearance papers yesterday, was released today, and the vessel left port heading for Saigon.

No More Loans

St Petersburg April 13—Official denial is given to the report that the government is contemplating the issue of another internal loan at present.

Idaho Wool Sales

Only one clip of wool consisting of about 25,000 pounds was sold at the Mountainhome wool sales on Saturday and that was disposed of at 17 cents. Eight lots were offered but all were withdrawn but one lot, on account of the price. The lowest bid was 11 cents. There were a number of buyers present. —Boise News

Cleanse your system of all impurities this month. Now is the time to take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It will keep you well all summer. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Newlin Drug Co.

TREATING THROAT TROUBLES

A Plain Statement to Show What the Osteopathic Method is and why it Achieves Results

The impression that Osteopathic treatment is adapted only to the relief of spinal curvatures, paralysis, rheumatism, and chronic nervous diseases is one that has very naturally been formed by many who have made no practical investigation of the subject; for it is cases of this kind, in which other methods have failed, that have come to the Osteopath during the long period in which he has been establishing himself; and it is upon his success that his reputation has been based.

A NEW ERA IS DAWNING

But the day when the practice of the Osteopath was limited to cases of this nature is well nigh gone; and everywhere the public are beginning to appreciate the fact that the science offers the very best hope of relief and cure, whatever may be the disease.

As an illustration of this, it may be noted that public singers, speakers and actors, whose work requires perfect condition of the throat, and is a severe strain upon it, nowadays resort to Osteopathy when they have used their vocal powers to excess or in any other way contracted throat troubles. Whether the affliction be slight or serious, Osteopathic treatment can do more, and do it more quickly, safely, and painlessly than any other procedure.

CAUSE, EFFECT AND CURE

In most throat affections there is congestion—a damming up, at the point of attack, of the blood and other body fluids that should be circulating rapidly. In normal circulation these fluids are regularly purified and renewed through the work of the various organs, carry needed nourishment, and take away with them, to the lungs and other excretory organs, the waste matter. Such a damming up is "inflammation," and it develops variously.

Often there is a distinct anatomical obstruction that has predisposed the patient to the attack by leaving the throat tissues ill supplied or badly drained; and proper readjustment, restoring good circulation, brings relief and cure.

THE PRINCIPLE EVER THE SAME

Frequently, however, there is no such predisposing cause. The nerves and tissues have simply become irritated through excessive use, or from other causes peculiar to the case, resulting in a muscular condition which impedes circulation. Osteopathic manipulation of the throat tissues, freeing up the circulation of the blood and lymph in the congested area, again accomplishes better results than any other method.

Many who are dependent upon their voices take such treatment regularly, not because they are suffering from disease, but so that the throat may be kept always in the best possible condition, making throat trouble unlikely to occur.

In this connection it should be noted that the Osteopath maintains that the cutting of the tonsils is seldom justifiable; and that he can and does relieve and cure such cases without any use of the knife.—The Right Way.

The Cornucopia

Baker City April 13— Ed Mills, a prominent resident of Pine Valley, is in town today attending to business matters. He is largely interested in Cornucopia mining properties, and feels that much is to be done out that way this summer to bring the great values existing to attention of capitalists who will develop on a large scale.

Notice to Sheepmen

The Bureau of Animal Industry require all sheep, going into other states to be turned on the range, to be dipped once under Federal supervision, and twice if they are infected with scab. There will be no concession or modifications of this order for the present year.

Sheep shippers and owners should place themselves in a position to comply with these requirements before offering their sheep to the Railroad Company for shipment. Please take particular notice of the fact that this dipping must be under Federal supervision, and provide against misunderstanding.

Music

R P Taft, the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley, is still in the ring. During my vacation I made it my business as well as pleasure to attend concerts, operas, and in fact everything in my line of business and I found that I as a teacher, and interpreter of music am still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piano course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Church and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Pupils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in m

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.
MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state. During the year 1904 there were nearly four thousand lessons given. The people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the great advantage of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years up, and taking in the 1st to 3rd grades. In this department pupils come one hour every day. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.
