MAID KNIFED BY JEALOUS WIFE

Coulee City, Wash., April 14.—Miss Maed Fowler, the 17 year old mail carrier between Jean and St. Andrews, lies in a critical condition at Jean postoffice, as the result of being stabbed with a knife in the hands of Mrs. Bertha Fowler. The cause of the trouble was jealousy on the part of Mrs. Fowler, she having at various times during the past year accused Miss Fowler of secretly meeting her husband, Les Fowler.

The whole trouble culminated at 11 o'clock yesterday upon Miss Fowler's arrival at Jean with the mail. Mrs. Fowler, who walked five miles for the purpose and was waiting for her victim, drew an old case knife, which she had sharpened to a razor edge, from its concealment about her person, and plunged it five times into the body of her defenseless victim, before the postmaster, S. B. Svendgaard, could interfere.

The first blow of the knife entered the left lung between the fourth and fifth ribs, the second in the breast bone and the other three in the left shoulder.

Dr. N. A. Gregg of this place dressed the wounds on the young girl, but gives no hopes of her recovery.

Girls Rescue Boy

San Bernardino, April 14.—Grace Vaughn and Susie Watts, little girls of Cotton, deserve Carnegie medals for bravery, having saved William Wisaham from drowning. The little fellow had fallen into a sand pit filled with water to a depth of 10 feet by the recent rains.

The Wisaham boy walked near the edge of the pit, which had given way. Without a thought of the danger of the treacherous bank, or that she had on her best clothes, Grace lay down and shoved herself out into the deep water while Susie Watts clung to her ankles. Grace was thus able to reach the drowning boy. Susie dragged both a-hore. The physician resuscitated the boy.

Lincoln Assassinated

Forty years ago today Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, was assassinated at Washington City, ten days after his inauguration for the second time as President of the United States, and four days after the surrender of General Lee and the Confederate army at Appomattox in Virginia near Richmond. The assassin, after he had shot Lincoln in the head and stabbed him, brandished the knife crimsoned with the President's blood, shouting "The South is Avenged."

Helena April 14.—The coroner's jury at Malta which has been investigating the killing of William Sitz, has reached a verdict charging his 13 year old step son, William Armington, with first degree murder.
