LOCAL ITEMS

J M Buckley Supt of the O R & N is in the City today.

Miss Olive Jones of this city is in Pendleton on a short visit.

Tickets for the Miss Mary Adell Case entertainment Tuesday evening are on ly fifty cents.

Do not fail to read Ash Brothers Ad today. It will interest you and perhaps save you some dollars.

Mr. Arthur Curtis, the surveyor, returned yesterday afternoon from a surveying trip in Wallowa county.

Miss Mary Adell Case will appear in the Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Lyle Tuesday Musicals. Those who were so fortunate as to hear Miss Case when she was here at her prior engagement were so delighted that they eagerly sought for her return.

Mr. Dooley, of North Yakima, Wash. has just finished the purchase of a car load of horses at Elgin. The car arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, and Mr. Dooley took them to North Yakima this morning. The car of horses is as fine a car load as was ever seen of the kind in La Grande, and speaks well for the county.

Speaking at the L D B Church Sunday evening at 7:30 p m Subject: "What shall we do to be saved." Speaker David Jordan. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs Fred Beck now visiting her sister in Heppner, is expected home in a few days.

Ex-United States Marshall Zoeth Houser of Pendleton passed through on this morning's train enroute to his mines in Grant county.

Bulgarians Slaughtered

Salonica, April 14—Later reports from Ragorikham, near Klissura, which was attacked by a Greek band on April 7, and burned, say that over 100 Bulgarians were killed, instead of 30, as stated in earlier dispatches. The Greeks afterwards executed 30 prisoners on the spot where the Greek leader, Malas, was killed last October.

Fourth of July

Last year La Grande provided a celebration that drew thousands to our city and every one enjoyed it from the first to the last.

The people were well taken care of. There were long strings of seats for the weary. A large arbor for friends to visit under and eat their lunches. We had the best of music. In short La Grande gave the people satisfaction. Every detail was carefully provided for to give instruction, amusement and comfort.

The question now is if La Grande is going to celebrate, it is high time we were taking steps to prepare for it. If not, why not? This city is capable of taking care of an immense gathering. We can feed thousands and have sleeping accommodations for all who would want to remain in the city during the one or two days celebration.

This matter will doubtless be given careful consideration at the next meeting of the business men of the Commercial Club.

Miracle of Roses

Miss Beesie Henry and Miss Matlook, who are next door neighbors on Main street, are jointly interested in a rose bed. The first of the week they set out a number of rose cuttings. To their utter astonishment, upon viewing their bed at an early hour this morning, each and every shrub had blossomed out during the night, those that were supposed to bring forth red were laden with white, and general confusion existed as compared with their previous decision when ordering. However, upon a critical examination being made, it was discovered that flora, evidently secured from some millinery department, had supplied the imagination of some friend, who proceeded to assist nature in beautifying the bed several weeks prior to the natural evolution of leaves, buds and blooms.

LAWN MOWERS

MRS. T. N. MURPHY,
BUILDERS' HARDWARE, CUTLERY ETC.

Mr J B Stoddard left this morning for Baker City on a business trip.

Attorney Chas Cochran of Union, is in the city today on legal business.

Rev J H Barton of the Presbyterian Church at Union, is visiting Rev E B Hays in this city.

This is arbor day, and the occasion was fittingly celebrated in the various rooms of the public schools.

Mr O W Oaks of Calhoun, Illinois, has arrived in the city, and expects to remain in the Grande Ronde Valley to make his home. He came here for his health, and is well pleased during the few days he has spent here.

In this issue appears Baker Brothers special announcement regarding good things for Sunday dinner. From this time on, each Friday and Saturday, their regular ad will contain special announcements regarding their line of Sunday dinner specials. Careful house wives will do well to watch their space for hints for that most important of all meals, the Sunday dinner.
