The Rev. Geo. T. Ellis left this forenoon for Baker City, where he will remain over night, returning to this city tomorrow.

The Rev J D Gillian left Union this morning to go to Haines, at which place there will be conducted a series of special meetings.

Mr Jake Gulling, who has been ill for several days, has recovered sufficiently to resume his duties as conductor on the Elgin branch.

Rev J C Walker, who filled the pulpit at the Methodist church yesterday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. J D Gillian, returned to his home at Union this morning.

Mr J E Taylor, of Arizona who has been at Milner, Idaho, looking for a location, arrived in this city yesterday morning and thinks that he will invest in a home in the Grande Ronde.

Miss Dena Striker of Portland, was in the city yesterday to attend the funeral of her sister, Miss Helen Striker. Miss Dena was accompanied by her Aunt Mrs Eaton, of Portland.

Circuit Court opens today at Enterprise and Judge Eakin will probably call a grand jury. If this is done the first case to investigate will be that of McBane, who killed the two Strauts brothers, as this is the case of most importance.

A T Hill the druggist, is placing in position today some of the finest store fixtures ever brought to this city. They surround his soda fountain, and will when installed make his soda department one of the finest in the state. Mr Hill has firm confidence in the present and future prosperity of this city and leaves nothing undone which will keep him abreast of the town.

A base ball nine has been formed at Hot Lake, and the boys will play La Grande and other eastern Oregon teams this season.

Miss Edna Breckenridge left this morning for Haines to assist in the special meetings at the Methodist church at that place.

Miss Lillian McCall will leave this evening for Mexico City where she will remain three months visiting with Mrs G A Nichols formerly of Union, and to look over the country in general. Her many friends wish her a most pleasant trip.

Miss Case tomorrow evening at the Presbyterian church.

E E Willard arrived this morning from Portland.
