Will Wright, of Union, was over Sunday evening on a brief visit.

The sub-station being erected here by the Grande Ronde Electric Company which will get the power from & Staples, the new plant at the Cove, will soon be completed, from which the Sanstorium will be furnished with lights.

Miss Olive Jones was over from La Grande Sunday and Monday the guest of Miss L R Lorenz.

The grounds surrounding the Sanstorium are being laid out in flower heds, and various kinds of beautiful plants and flowers are being put in, which will add much to the appearance of the place.

The new $70,000 addition to the Sanatorium will be completed by the early part of next year, and work thereon will be in progress in a short time. This new add:tion will have many new modern rooms, and there will be a regular hospital in connection for surgical operations, and several skilled trained nurses will be employed. This hospital will be a benefit to the country at large.

New System Ready

Patrons of the telephone system will so longer be obliged to twist the handle when they wish to call up Central.

Just take the receiver down and wait for Central to call number. The system was changed last night, the old board done away with and the lines cut over on to the new switch board. The new phones will be placed in position in a few days, and then the new system will be installed complete. The patrons should bear in mind that the entire system is different from the old one, and that the girls in charge must practically learn their trade over practically learn their trade over again, and therefore the public should again, and therefore the public should not be too exacting for a few days.

Manager Osburn states that it will only be a few days before the entire only be a few days before the entire. only be a few days before the entire system will be in first class working order and the new phones in position.

Music

& P Tait, the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley, is still in the tend concerts, operas, and in fact everything in my line of business and I found that I as a teacher, and interpreter of music am still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piaco course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Church and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Papils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in R P TAIT, teaches
