Local Items

Mr G W Thomas, left this morning for a business trip to North Powder.

Mrs. C S Brown, of Pendleton, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. M L Causey.

Mrs John White, of Durkee, arrived in the city last evening and will visit here for several days.

County Clerk J H Gilham returned last evening from his trip in Washington. He enjoyed himself very much.

There will be a meeting of the W O T U tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adcock. All members are requested to be present.

The Stenographer and typewriters Association will meet at the Court House Thursday evening April 20th 1905. All members are requested to be present.

The semi-annual report of the financial condition of the county will be published in a few days, just as soon as the sheriff finds time to file his portion of the report.

P F Leavy, manager of the Union Central Life Insurance Co., with headquarters in Portland, is in the city, a guest of Wm. Grant, who is the local agent of the company.

Those who attended the concert given last evening at the Presbyterian church by Miss Mary Adell Case, were delighted. The lady is one of Oregon's sweetest singers and is earning a reputation that is extending over the United States.

The first match game of the season to be played by the La Grande baseball team will take place at Pendleton on Sunday, April 30, at which time they will cross bats with the Pendleton team. The first game to be played in this city will be Sunday, May 7, when our boys will match their strength against the Huntington nine.

Superintendent Fred Housh states that the Grand Ronde Electric Co. is pushing its work just as fast as it is possible. Today they received another car of poles and one car load of wire, and that all the machinery has been shipped from New York and that, shipped from San Francisco is expected to arrive this week. They have their poles set a distance of eight miles out of the city and the holes all dug one mile further.

Miss Caroline Rynearson, of La Grande, is in the city for a few days representing the cement block building material being manufactured by Scott & Kuhn, of La Grande. She will endeavor to place the matter before Pendleton architects and property owners in hopes of introducing the cement block as building material and street and sidewalk pavement. Miss Rynearson is a pioneer of La Grande and has many friends in this city. She will travel for the company throughout the Inland Empire - Pendleton E O.

Assessor J H Morton left this morning for North Powder to make arrangements for the taking of the census at that place. He has already succeeded in starting the work at Elgin, Summerville and Imbler, and it will soon be commenced in this city.

Mr James Nelson, of the Cove, has had the misfortune to get a piece of steel in his eye and it is giving him a great deal of pain and inconvenience. He left last night for Portland where he will have the foreign substance removed.

Word comes from Portland that Mr B F Lewis, who went to Portland about seven weeks ago to have his eye treated on account of a piece of steel lodged therein, is slowly improving.

Mr Weaver was up yesterday from the Cove with a load of chickens for sale, and he was very successful in disposing of them, the chickens averaging sixty cents a piece.

Giroux Bros, the new managers of Hotel Sommer, are having the lobby of the building treated to a new coat of paint.

Mr Hopper, the Elgin butcher, was in the city yesterday and carried back a band of sheep for the market at that place.

Mrs. Levi, of Union, who has been in the city on a visit to Mrs B Sommer, returned home this morning.

Photographer W F Hendricks, left this forenoon for Hot Lake and North Powder on a business visit.

Mr Selden Olds, left this morning for Elgin on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mr Doon Wool, of the Sandridge was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Rev E B Hayes, pastor of the Presbyterian church, left last evening for Sumpter to attend the Grand Ronde Presbytery which will be in session at that place during the week. He will return Friday.

Mrs J K Wright and Mrs E B Hayes left yesterday for Sumpter as delegates to the Presbyterian Missionary Society which will be held at that place during the meeting of the Presbytery.

Mr Fred Jacob yesterday shipped a large order of furniture to Umatilla. This speaks well for Mr Jacobs and La Grande in general as it demonstrates the fact that prices are tight in La Grande or orders would not come in this direction when Portland about as near. La Grande is fast becoming the commercial center for all of Eastern Oregon.
