Mr Wilkinson has been a constant subscriber since the first issue of the Observer. He reports the prospect for a good crop never brighter.

"He who builds and keeps in repair, or influences thereto, a good piece of road fronting his property, is, perhaps, a greater public benefactor even than he who plants along the same road a row of trees to shade the traveler, or establishes at a convenient point a watering trough where thirsty animals may find refreshing drinks."

Mr and Mrs Frank McKenzie, of Winfield, Iowa, who have been spending the winter in Santa Ana, Los Angeles and other places of interest in the southern part of California, are spending a few days with Mr McKenzie's sister, Mrs G H Roszell, of this city. They had not seen each other for thirty years. Mr McKenzie and Mr Roszell are both veterans of the war of 1861.

Do not forget the Easter ball to be given by the La Grande Commercial Club. It is sure to be the event of the season.

A country is known by the roads it keeps.

Wallowa Hatchery

Fish Commissioner Van Dusen, arrived in the city this morning and left on the Elgin train for Elgin, from where he will go down to the mouth of the Wallowa river and begin the work of getting the salmon hatchery ready for the seasons work. He has plans and specifications with him for the erection of a new building and other improvements. The hatchery will not only hatch salmon, but will also hatch trout. This will be of great advantage to this part of the state as it will enable those who take interest in the stocking of our mountain streams to secure young fish sufficient for all their needs.
