Miss L. E. Lorenz came up from Hot Lake last night having finished her duties there. She will go to her home in the Cove tomorrow to remain a while and then expects to go either to Boise or Walla Walla where she has some good offers in the newspaper work.

Mr. J. W. Cowen, who was injured in the explosion yesterday forenoon while drying some powder which he had manufactured, is able to walk about, but his face is so badly swollen that he is temporarily blind. He and the other members of the family are indeed fortunate that all were not blown into sternity, as in all there was over ten pounds of powder that exploded.

Next Sunday is Easter

The fishing season is now on in earnest and the small boy as well as the larger ones can be seen on any of our numerous trout streams in the county whenever the sun is shining.

Hon. Frank Baker, chairman of the State Republican central committee is in the city. He came to make arrangements to have his wife and son, remain here during the summer in the hopes that the change will prove beneficial to the health of his son.

From reports that come from The Dalles and from Eugene, it appears that these two vicinities have been visited by severe hail storms, the particles of hail in some instances measuring an inch in diameter. It is reported that this hail created a great deal of damage to fruit trees, hops and other growing crops, as well as breaking glass in windows.

June 1st, will be a legal holiday in Oregon, for Governor Chamberlain has said that he will issue a proclamation so declaring it in honor of the opening of the big exposition in Portland. It is likely the governors of Washington, Montana, Idaho and Wyoming will follow suit, as they have been requested to do.

S. D. McLain, of Silver City Idaho is here visiting his mother Mrs. C. J. McLain.

Lieut. H. McFeeley of Seattle is here visiting his cousin Mrs. E. W. Bartlett. Lieut. McFeeley has seen service in Cuba and the Philippines and is now on way back from Leavenworth where he took a prisoner.
