A Nice Gift.
 Mr. T. H. Boynton of this city, who had seen a statement in the Observer that an attempt was being made to establish a library at the court house for the prisoners confined in the jail, today called at the Observer office and left a dozen books for this purpose. The books donated show a good judgment in the selection, being composed of books on travel and exploration, histories of the wonderful things in the world, books of psalms, and several magazines treating upon mechanics and engineering. This work of establishing a library for the jail is something that the people should take more interest in for it intends to enlighten and uplift, as well as entertain, the people who are so unfortunate as to be confined in the jail.

LAYS A CLAIM TO MILLIONS
 By Scripps News Association
 Topeka, Kan., April 22.—Frank Smith, a cook in the Santa Fe hospital, has placed in the hands of attorneys a claim to a share of the Fair millions, based on the belief that he is the brother of Mrs. Chas. Fair, who was killed with her husband in an automobile accident in France. Smith says that he left his home in 1877, and that he has not corresponded with his relatives for many years. Recently, he says, he noticed in the papers the death of Mrs. Hannah Nelson, whom he claims as his mother.
