Local Items

M. L. Causey is in Portland.
J. M. Duffey, of the Cove, was a La Grande visitor today.

Mr. George Stoddard left today for a short business visit to Baker City.

Attorney Chas. Cochran, of Union, is in the city today on a business visit.

Wm. Muir is down from his mines up Grande Ronde and will remain several days.

Dave Clark came over from the Cove today, bringing 600 dozen eggs for the La Grande market.

Mrs. M. F. Davis and Margaret Bloom of Union are visiting La Grande friends this week.

Mr. Harry Holson, of Pendleton, is in the city visiting Dr. P. A. Charlton and other friends.

Mr. James Gavin, who has been in the hospital at Portland, returned home this forenoon, very much improved in health.

Mr. Al Vogel, the big horse buyer from Pendleton, has been in the city on business, and left this morning for Baker City.

Mr. John Terrell, of Colorado, has been in the city for the purpose of looking at the country. He left this morning for Baker City, but will return here in a few days.

Mr. M. Irwin, who has been in this city organizing a tribe of Redmen, has accomplished his work at this place, having succeeded in getting a lodge in good running order. He left this forenoon for Baker City where his work calls him.

The summer season is surely here. The street sprinkler is at work. G. E. Fowler, put a man to work with a splinter new sprinkler of the most approved pattern. It certainly is a great improvement over the antiquated affair which has heretofore done service.

Adolph Newlin and J. P. Kennedy took a day off last week and exchanged residence property. By the exchange Mr. Newlin becomes the owner of Mr. Kennedy's handsome home in the Old Town, and Mr. Kennedy takes possession of Mr. Newlin's delightful home property in the New Town.

John S. Tait and wife of Darature Ill., arrived in the city this morning.

Miss Ida Farris left yesterday morning for Union, where she will visit relatives and friends.

The High School boys are doing hard work preparatory to the contest with the Union school next Saturday.

Mr. Joseph Giroux, one of the new managers of Hotel Sommer, left yesterday forenoon for Baker City, and will return tonight.

The La Grande National Bank has a new bank statement in this issue of the paper, with figures of interest to all.

Peter Goyette of High Valley is hauling his grain to Cove where he is storing it. Mr. Goyette will not sell at present as he thinks wheat will reach 80 cents by June.

Messrs. G. O. Schieur and H. D. Atkins made a record breaking catch at the Lake last Saturday afternoon securing 28 fine trout; the string weighing 40 pounds.—Joseph Herald.

The La Grande Marble Works have just completed the erection of a handsome monument in the I. O. O. F. cemetery over the grave of the highly respected pioneer J. R. Kellogg.

Oscar Lund and M. Barkgreen are in the city today from the Cove concluding the negotiations for the Cove box factory owned by Messrs. Hancock & White. The new firm have purchased 200,000 feet of lumber as a starter.

Mr. N. K. West and Mr. E. H. Hubbard spent yesterday at the stock ranch of the former, two miles and one half from Higard. Mr. West has a thousand acres of land in that vicinity, and will this week complete the fencing of the entire ranch with board fences.

Yesterday a jolly fishing party spent the day at Five Points. The party was composed of Messrs. J. W. Craighead, R. Stark, Wm. Ericson, Earl Zundell and Low Zundell. They have wonderful tales to relate as to the fish they caught, as well as "that one which got away". Some of the "fish stories" they tell would make an older disciple of Isaac Walton green with envy.

There will be a service in Central Church this evening at eight o'clock and one or more will be baptized.

SEWING MACHINES

I am agent for the celebrated White Sewing Machine. If you need a machine call and examine their good qualities. There are no better on the market.

I also have a complete stock of Doors, Windows and Screen Doors. Builder's hardware: Fishing Tackle Blacksmith supplies and Carpenter tools.
