CAPT. A. W. WATERS ILL

We learn from the Malheur Gazette of the 27 inst. that Capt Abner W. Waters, who commanded Company E. First Oregon Infantry from the Organization of that regiment until its muster out of the service at close of the Civil War recently received a paralytic stroke at Weiser Idaho.

Capt. Waters came to Oregon from Ohio in the early fifties, and because of his deep interest in all matters that pertained to the development of Oregon, took a leading part in all public matter and it would be difficult to write the history of Southern, Western or Eastern Oregon without noting his influence upon the up building force that shaped the destiny of Oregon.

SCHOOL LAND FRAUDS

The Grand Jury of Marion County, Oregon, has been delving into school land frauds, and has unearthed facts that indicate that within the past three years, fully, 500,000 acres, of school lands have been acquired by fraud. Ever since the Observer has existed it has from time to time called attention to the fearful robbery of the children of Oregon in the management of our State School land, and it is glad that the proper authorities have at last taken hold of the matter.

If La Grande is going to celebrate the national day this year, it is time that we were letting the citizens of the county know the fact. There must be no half way business about it. We must celebrate right, or we must pass it up altogether. It is for the business men to say which course to follow.

Our contractors should not fail to place bids for the proposed fish hatchery to be built on the Wallowa river. Fish commissioner Van Dussen has stated that it is his wish that the contract be let to some Eastern Oregon contractor. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

The La Grande base ball club will certainly demonstrate the fact that La Grande can put up good ball. It is not probable that the home team will win all the games, but it is an assured fact that if it does not get the larger portions of the games played the outside teams will certainly be called upon to go some.

When the boys get a game for La Grande turn out and see for yourself. Base ball teams like other town improvements need encouragement.
