She still seems firm in board of directors the belief that she would be acquitted, hope to be free and on my way home to my mother in Washington." She appeared in the westington. She stated to a reporter, "Tonight I peared in the court room this morning dressed in the deepest black, and took ber seat beside the council, and listen ed to the Recorder's charge to the jury without any apparent change of expression. 'The Recorder's charge was to the effect that the jury should not consider ber past life, and that she was entitled to the benefit of every reasonable doubt and that it must be their presumption that she was innocent. The Recorder stated that the only question for the jury to consider was, whether or not Nan Patterson killed Ceasar Young and not whether Young killed himself. The jury, the Recorder repeated, must determine

Jim Hill Kicks

By Scripps News Association Washington, May 3 .- James J Hill old the Senate committee on interstate commerce this afternoon that the restrictions placed on railroads by the interstate commerce commission were killing the export trade, by compelling the roads to file public schedules of division rates. He said that, while development of the export trade meant prosperity for the country, but reprented an actual loss to the railroads.

Six New Engines

A railroad through a country is the ulse by which one may judge the prosperty of the country. If the railroad is prosperous, making improve-ments, increasing its capacity for bandling passengers and freight, then it necessarily follows, as the night, the day, that the country, touched by and tributary to this railroad, is in a bealthy condition, thriving and increasing in population and wealth.
