Attorney F B Ivanhoe is attending supreme court at Pendleton.

Miss Beesie Henry is in Portland where she expects to remain several weeks.

Mrs. Frank Toney, nee Grace Kinsey, is in the city visiting her parents. Her home is now in Baker City.

Manager Giroux, of the Hotel Sommer, left this forenoon for a short business trip to Durkee, where his brother is in business.

E T Rouse of Enterprise passed through the city last night enroute for Boise City where he goes to accompany his parents Mr and Mrs Thomas Rouse, to Wallows county where they will spend the Summer.

C E Logsdon left this morning with the expectation of making his future home in Portland. However as he stepped on board the cars he said that Grande Ronde was one of the best countries on earth and that stranger things had happened, if in the course of a few months he returned.

John Collier, of the Golden Rule Store, returned this morning from Portland, where he went to meet representatives of an Eastern wholesale house, to purchase holiday goods. It seems odd that preparations should be made at this early date for Xmas trade.

Mr. A J Hontz, and Mrs. Emma Hontz, of Springfield, Ill., who have been visiting at Los Angeles and Conductor Hontz of the O R & N, the son of Mr. Hontz, at Pendleton, left this morning for their home.

Rev Frank Day, the Baptist minister of La Grande was in the city yesterday and spent the day with G L Hall of this city. Mr Day is on his way to St Louis to attend the Baptist anniversary which will be held in that city, and will be absent for three weeks.—Pendleton Tribune.

The Grande Ronde Lumber Co have their log drive to a point about eight miles above Hilgard and these recent rains give assurance that they will be able to get all their logs down. This they did not expect until the past three days.

W H Briggs is down from Starkey today. He reports the grass on the range the best for years and these rains mean still more grass.

Fesch Bros. who were in the city yesterday states that these rains mean that the wild hay crop will be greatly in excess of expectation of what they would have been prior to this general soaking.

Buried Here

This forenoon the remains of Mr Charles Long were brought in from Walla Walla, and were interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery at two o'clock Mr Long lived at Touchet, Wash., and had been afflicted with bright's disease for some time. Just two days before his death, he was sent to the hospital at Walla Walla, but it was too late to stop the ravages of the dread disease, and he passed away night before last. The deceased was seventy one years of age, and leaves behind four daughters and one son to mourn his loss. The burial services were conducted by the Rev Smith of Elgin.

A Tempting Dish

Is a well cooked fish. That is if the fish is perfectly fresh and is served with the proper sauce. We are more than careful about the fish we serve. We must know beyond all question how long it has been

Out of the Water

Then we prepare it in our usual first class manner and it is ready for your enjoyment. We pay just as much attention to our other viands. Old customers will tell you we cook everything just right. We would like to have your opinion also.

Captured a Coyote

Last night the sons of Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson, and Assistant Superintendent T W Walsh, rounded up a coyote from the hillsides and drove him into town and into Mr. Walsh's woodshed, where Mr. Johnson put an end to its evening song by a few well directed revolver shots. As a demonstration of what La Grande boys are capable of, this is just a little ahead of anything so far reported. Mr. Johnson has had many years experience in the sheep business, and therefore should know when he says this was a full sized coyote.
