WONDERFUL MAGIC SEARCH LECTURE

The Search Lecture on "Music" at the Presbyterian church last night was a graphic description of the conditions which have made Germany the Fatherland of song. The lecture abounds in descriptions of beautiful forests, picturesque old towns, singing birds and unique pastimes. Space will not permit the telling of the wonderful magic of this great lecture. Those of the large audience all realized that they had been given a treat in word painting and rare information imparted with the delightful magic of a story teller. Dr. Bell pronounced it the greatest lecture ever given in Baker City.—Democrat.
